ABSTRACT FROM CHAPTER 99 OF THE REVISED LAWS OF MASSACHUSETTS

Sec. 3. Physicians and midwives shall, within forty-eight hours after the birth of every child in cases of which they were in charge, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a notice stating the date and place of the birth, giving the street number if any, color and the family name. They shall within fifteen days after the birth, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a report of the birth, stating the date and place, the name, if any, of the child, its sex and color, and the names, ages, places of birth, occupations and residences of the parents, giving the street number, if there be any, and the number of the ward in a city, the maiden name of the mother, if the full return is not made within the forty-eight hours.

The fee of the physician or midwife shall be twenty five cents for each birth so reported. A physician or midwife who neglects to report each birth within forty-eight hours or fifteen days thereafter, shall for each offense forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 6. Parents, within forty days after the birth of a child, and every householder within forty days after a birth in his house, shall cause notice thereof to be given to the clerk of the city or town in which child is born.

The facts required for record, as stated in section 3, shall, so far as known or obtainable, be included in every notice given under the provision of this section.

Sec. 8. A parent, or other persons who, by section 6, is required to give, or cause to be given, notice of a birth or death, who neglects to do so for ten days after the time limited therefor, shall forfeit not more than five dollars for each offense.

Sec. 24. The Town Clerk will furnish blanks for returns of births to parents, householders, physicians and midwives who apply therefor.

I have examined the accounts of the Selectmen, Assessors and Overseers of Public Welfare, and found them to be correct.

LESTER R. FISHER,
Auditor

Report of Board of Public Welfare

The Department of Public Welfare during the past year has been confronted with the task of handling an unprecedented number of individuals who have been obliged to request aid due to unemployment.

We feel that we have managed each case fairly to the individual and as economically as possible for the Town, and other interests.

Two hundred sixty-nine individuals have received aid. Twice as many as in any previous year. Of this number, one hundred and eight have their settlement in East Bridgewater, one hundred and nine in other towns, and fifty-two are State cases. At the present writing we are aiding two hundred and twenty-eight people.

In managing the Infirmary, we have kept well within our appropriation, and we are well satisfied with its management under Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grant as Warden and Matron. We have four inmates there at the present time, six being the largest number at any one time during the year.

The new State enactment, applying to Old Age Assistance became effective July 1, 1931. This Board organized with Mr. Ezra S. Whitmarsh as chairman and Mrs. Ellen N. E. Moorhouse as clerk. As this enactment was a new measure it meant much study and effort in order to become familiar with its management. Forty-seven applications for assistance were received by the Board. Twenty-seven applications were granted, and twenty applications were rejected, as they did not come within the interpretation of the law.

A financial statement will be found in the Town Auditor's report.

The Fred Bates Morse Post, No. 91, American Legion has raised the sum of $300. to be expended for the purchase of clothing, shoes and bed clothing for the children of the unemployed of the Town of East Bridgewater.

Money to be spent through the jurisdiction of the Visiting Nurse Association.

This help from the Legion is greatly appreciated.

IVUS I. RICHMOND, Chairman,
EZRA S. WHITMARSH, Clerk,
ELLEN N. E. MOORHOUSE.

Report of Fire Department

During the year the Department responded to 47 alarms; 12 district and 35 still or telephone alarms.

Valuation of property where fire occurred	$150,425.00
Total loss on property	13,419.65
Amount of Insurance paid on property	9,082.65

We have issued 6 garage permits, 5 permits to install gas tanks and store gasoline, 10 permits for furnace oil heaters, 62 permits for storage of fuel oil, 5 permits for sale of Fire Works, 3 permits for use of dynamite and 1 permit for storage of Alcohol.

As our Maxim Motor Truck is over 14 years old and in need of expensive repairs, we would respectfully recommend the purchase of a new Fire Truck to take its place.

At the Central Fire Station there is a Maxim Tripple Combination Truck, one Ford Truck and one horse drawn Hook and Ladder Truck, all fully equipped, at the Elmwood Station, one International Chemical Combination Truck and one horse drawn Hook and Ladder Truck, fully equipped.

The department has 3,200 feet double jacket rubber lined cotton jacket hose, 2½ in. in diameter and 100 feet of 1½ inch diameter double jacket rubber lined hose.

In sending in an alarm for fire, please go to the nearest telephone and call for the East Bridgewater Central Operator. Tell her there is a fire in District No....., at Mr.'s residence, or call emergency No. 20 and tell whoever answers there is a fire at Mr.....'s residence, in district No.....

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM E. MURPHY,
Chief Engineer.

CRIME

It is pleasing to be able to report that the Town has been free from serious crimes or disturbances. The increase in the number of arrests is due to more violations of the Motor Vehicle laws, and not for offenses involving moral turpitude.

CONCLUSION

I realize that whatever measure of success we have achieved in maintaining law and order is owing to the fact that the greater part of our people are law abiding, and I wish to acknowledge the co-operation I have received from the Selectmen and citizens in general.

Report of Highway Department

To the Citizens of the Town of East Bridgewater:

I herewith submit, as Highway Surveyor, my annual report for the year 1931, I have reconstructed, during the year, the following streets, Pond, Grove and Water, Cross and Emerald and Spring, I have also built permanent sidewalks on the following named streets, North Central and Pleasant Streets, Bedford Street to the top of Elmwood Hill, so called, besides making repairs in places where needed, all all of which work I feel will bear the approval of the citizens.

Conditions generally, in connection with our streets I feel are very good and perhaps only need slight attention during this year, therefor, it is my intention to only ask for a Highway Maintenance appropriation together with a Street Oiling appropriation, to follow out the economic program of the Town.

I also submit herewith inventory of stock and tools on hand December 31, 1931.

Respectfully spbmitted,

ADAM McCORDICK,

State Auditor's Report

To the Board of Selectmen,
Mr. Michael F. Roach, Chairman,
East Bridgewater, Massachusetts.

Gentlemen:

I submit herewith my report of an audit of the books and accounts of the town of East Bridgewater for the period from January 1, 1930, to December 4, 1931, made in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 44 of the General Laws. This is in the form of a report made to me by Mr. Edward H. Fenton, Chief Accountant of this Division.

Very truly yours,

THEODORE N. WADDELL,

TNW:GY

Director of Accounts.

Mr. Theodore N. Waddell,
Director of Accounts,
Department of Corporations and Taxation,
State House, Boston.

Sir:

In accordance with your instructions, I have made an audit of the books and accounts of the town of East Bridgewater for the period from January 1, 1930, to December 4, 1931, and submit the following report thereon:

The books and accounts of the accounting officer were examined and checked, the reported receipts being compared with the financial records of the several departments collecting money for the town and with the treasurer's books. The payments, as recorded on the ledger, were checked to the treasury warrants authorizing disbursements and with the treasurer's cash book.

The ledger was analyzed, adjusting entries were made, a trial balance was taken off, proving the accounts to be in balance, and a balance sheet, which is appended to this report, was prepared showing the financial condition of the town as of December 4, 1931.

In order that the accounting officer's ledger may at all times reflect the true condition of the town, it is recommended that departmental officials co-operate with the accounting officer by notifying him at least monthly of commitments and other departmental charges.

The appropriations, as shown on the accounting officer's ledger, were checked and it was noted that appropriations aggregating $3,750 were voted by the town at a special meeting held February 2, 1931, the amount to be taken from surplus revenue. Attention is again called to the fact that appropriations from surplus revenue for departmental purposes may not be voted unless such appropriations are represented by free cash in the treasury. That there was no free cash available when the appropriations were voted is evidenced by the fact that, although the surplus revenue account amounted approximately to $11,000 on December 31, 1930, there were uncollected taxes on that date of about $56,000.

Attention in this connection is called to Section 23, Chapter 59, General Laws, as amended by Chapter 428, Acts of 1931, which requires that the assessors raise all sums appropriated since the last preceding annual tax assessment, and which also provides that deductions on account of appropriations voted from available funds in the treasury may be made by the assessors only upon the approval of the Commissioner of Corporations and Taxation. All appropriations voted by the town, whether they are to be raised by taxation or provided by transfer from available funds in the treasury, should be certified by the town clerk to the assessors, in accordance with the requirements of Section 15-A, Chapter 41, General Laws.

The appended balance sheet as of December 4, 1931, indicates that the town is not in satisfactory financial condition. The surplus revenue of $6,878.72 is more than offset by uncollected taxes of 1931 and prior years aggregating $74,527.06, and unless collection of these outstanding taxes is promptly enforced, the town treasurer will be unable to comply with the provisions of Chapter 44 General Laws, as affecting the payment of revenue loans of 1931 amounting to $80,000 and due by March 1, 1932.

A determined effort should be made to prevent overdrawn appropriation accounts. On December 4, 1931, there were overdrawn accounts aggregating $3,977.03, contrary to the provisions of Section 31, Chapter 44, General Laws; and although there is a balance in the reserve fund of $4,040.15, this fund may be used only to provide for extraordinary or unforeseen expenses and not to take care of overdrafts.

The books and accounts of the town treasurer were examined and checked. The recorded receipts were analyzed and compared with the records in the several departments collecting money for the town and with the other sources from which money was paid into the town treasury, while the payments were checked with the selectmen's warrants. The bank balance was reconciled with a statement furnished by the bank in which the town funds are deposited.

The payments of debt and interest were checked with the amounts falling due during the period of the audit and with the cancelled securities on file.

The securities and savings bank books representing the investment of the various trust funds in the custody of the selectmen, town treasurer, and the East Bridgewater Savings Bank were examined and listed. The income was proved and the withdrawals from the banks and the expenditures were checked and verified.

The books and accounts of the tax collector were examined and checked in detail. The collector's payments to the treasurer were listed and checked to the treasurer's and the accountant's books, and the abatements were compared with the assessors' record of abatements granted. The outstanding accounts were listed, and verification notices were mailed to a number of persons whose names appeared on the books as owing money to the town, the replies received thereto indicating that the outstanding accounts, as listed, are correct.

The town clerk's records of town licenses, together with the records of dog and sporting licenses issued, were examined, the payments to the town treasurer being compared with the treasurer's cash book and the payments to the county and to the State being verified with the receipts on file.

The accounts of all other departments collecting money for the town were examined and reconciled with the treasurer's and the accountant's books.

The surety bonds of the treasurer, tax collector, and town clerk for the faithful performance of their duties were examined and found to be in proper form.

Appended to this report, in addition to the balance sheet, are tables showing a reconciliation of the treasurer's and the collector's cash, summaries of the tax and assessment accounts, together with tables showing the trust fund transactions.

For the co-operation received from the several town officers during the progress of the audit, I wish, on behalf of my assistants and for myself, to express appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

EDW. H. FENTON,

Chief Accountant.

Librarian's Report

To the Board of Trustees of the East Bridgewater Public Library:

I present herewith the annual report, covering the year ending December 31, 1931.

Circulation

During 1931 the circulation reached the total of 45137 volumes per capita. Our per capita rating is more than double the requirements of the American Library Association. More books were charged in the fiction department alone than were borrowed in total in 1929. The increase in the circulation of non-fiction was also notable. This was due not only to the customary requests from students but also to the constant demand from people who are preparing themselves to meet the present economic conditions. The interest shown by teachers and pupils greatly increased the circulation of books in the schools.

In view of this increased demand, the library facilities have been taxed to the utmost. The outer shelves which contain the newer books are constantly depleted, and it is necessary for the attendants to use as much ingenuity as possible in order to make old and shabby books appear attractive. So handicapped have we been during the past year because of our definite lack of standard reference material we have had to borrow constantly through the Inter-Library Loan. While this has worked profitably for us, it must be borne in mind that we may be handicapping other libraries by calling for books which are needed by their own patrons. Under normal conditions it would be gratifying to feel that we were slowly but surely developing the advisory and reference service of the library. Today we are not so proud of our increased circulation as we are concerned over the difficulty which we have in supplying the needs of the public.

The System

The library continues to remain open five days each week throughout the year. While we maintain the present patronage it seems inadvisable to shorten the hours or to close the library during the summer.

We have added a new charging desk this year. The former charging desk was not only inadequate for charging books but it also hampered free access to the book stacks.

The charging system has been changed from the obsolete Brown system to the Newark system. In the changed system, each borrower must present a card when borrowing or returning books.

The children's room is proving indispensable and at the same time inadequate. While it is necessary to give the children special attention in their book selection, it is impossible to give them adequate service in such a crowded space. From an administrative point of view, a larger children's department must be given due recognition else our library is not serving the community to its fullest extent.

Activities

Fifty-six school deposits have been made during the year. Each deposit represents from twenty to forty books which are lent to a teacher for a month or six weeks, the circulation on which the library loses.

Twenty-three five-book reading certificates were presented. The grade school pupils are taking an active interest in the state reading course.

Two Portugese and two Italian Libraries have been used during the year.

All paper labels were soaked and scraped from the books in the library. The books were re-lettered and shellaced.

Shelves were made in the tower room for a magazine file. A periodical index greatly aids students in using these magazines for reference.

The library has been used for special meetings by the Garden Club, the Woman's Club, and the Mothers' Club.

Exhibits have been held for special days and events. During book week our "Trip Around the World in Books" was highly appreciated by the children.

Personnel

Miss Isabelle Odabashian, the regular assistant, resigned in September to accept a position in the Allen School. Miss Catharine Fogo resigned to attend Dalhousie University. Since these resignations, alternate part time services are given by Miss Leah Canelli, Miss Grace Curley, and Miss Allegra Judson.

Recommendations

Except for the brief services of Miss Odabashian, there has been no qualified regular assistant in the library during the past two years. With a three-fold increase in circulation, the services of a qualified assistant, together with the services of a part time assistant, are necessary if the library is to be held to standard requirements.

An inventory of the books in the library should be made. This and an enlarged children's room may be impossible to achieve at present but they should not be disregarded.

At a time when we might justly ask for an increase, I recommend that the appropriation for 1932 be at least equal to that of 1931. While depression and economic conditions have stunted nearly all lines of endeavor, the pendulum for recreation and education has swung to the public library. With a record number of borrowers and with a record circulation, any decrease in our appropriation would seriously impair our purchasing power. The addition to our shelves of current works is constantly demanded by our patrons. Using the greatest economy in our purchasing methods, we have yet been unable to supply the most sought after books during the past year. The public library is an adjunct to the educational system of the town. Until more funds are available we cannot meet the increased demands for the new reference material that is needed for the schools and the general public.

Gifts

The library has received several gifts during the year; books, magazines, and maps have been gratefully accepted.

Under the will of the late Horace T. Smith of Bridgeport, Conn., a former resident, the sum of $1,000 was bequeathed to the library. The interest of this money is to be used for the purchase of scientific books.

In conclusion I would express appreciation for the loyal help of the assistants, and to the Trustees for their continued cooperation and support.

Report of the Trustees of Plymouth County Aid to Agriculture, 1931

Through local and county-wide meetings of farmers and homemakers, through timely circular letters, through the 4-H clubs organized for the boys and girls of the county, and by means of personal correspondence, individual service to farmers and members of their families, and by assisting in the orderly marketing of agricultural products, the Plymouth County Extension Service, during 1931, cooperated with every town in the county in bringing to its citizens information regarding agriculture and homemaking. Very nearly six thousand families in the county have received assistance, information, or advice from the Extension Service this past year.

Attendance at agricultural meetings increased from 4,000 to 6,300. Office calls have doubled and telephoned requests for information increased by 50%. There was a 50% increase in homemakers attending extension groups and the number attending single meetings doubled. Membership in 4-H clubs has continued its steady growth with an increase of 50% in visits to club members.

Sixty-six personal visits were paid to farmers in East Bridgewater in order to give some information or advice affecting their business. At meetings of the Sattucket Herd Improvement Association, speakers were frequently supplied through the Extension Service. These meetings together with the Dairy Field Day held in June combined to make East Bridgewater one of the centers of interest for the dairy industry in this part of the state during the past year. Prof. Koon spoke at a Grange meeting, and a meeting for fruit growers was held at Dr. Kingman's. Ninety-four men received regularly letters and circulars containing agricultural information. Poultrymen and dairymen regularly attended meetings and tours held in other towns under Extension Service auspices. Judges were supplied for the Grange Fair. During the rat control campaign, 81 packages of especially prepared bait were supplied at cost to citizens of the town.

East Bridgewater maintained its high standard in 4-H club work in 1931. The total enrollment was 204 members enrolled in the following projects: clothing, home crafts, lunch box, supper, canning, handicraft, and garden.

All clubs were under the supervision of a local leader and all clubs received banner seals for their 4-H club charters. In order to receive a banner seal every member who enrolls must complete all requirements of the club.

First prize in the room improvement contest which is conducted each summer was won by Muriel Wilkinson.

Phyllis Kingman and Evelyn Smith won the first and second places in one class of the annual dress contest.

Marjorie Russell and Richard Leland attended the county 4-H camp which was held in conjunction with Berkshire County out in the Berkshire hills.

Americo Saccoccia was selected as one of the Plymouth County delegates to Camp Field, which was held during the week of Brockton Fair.

In East Bridgewater work was successfully completed in three organized groups, one in child development, and two in children's clothing. The town was also well represented at single meetings in clothing, nutrition and child development, and many homemakers registered for letter service in nutrition, gardening, and canning, and in child care.

ARTHUR LELAND,
Town Director.

Report of Board of Selectmen

Economic conditions during the past year have made economy in local government the watchword of all departments. Your Board of Selectmen have felt it necessary at two different times this past business year to call into conference the various departments to place before their members the exact financial condition of the town and to ask for their co-operation in the economical expenditure of public funds. This co-operation was gladly given by all departments, with the result that we were able to finish the calendar year with unexpended balances in some departments.

At one of these conferences which was held at the beginning of 1932, the Board of Selectmen requested the departments to try, in planning their new budget, to cut their expenditures in so far as was consistent with the proper functioning of the departments and the maintenance of a high standard of efficiency. Each department has given full co-operation and some $45,000.00 has been cut from the budget as compared with that of 1931.

Even with this very creditable saving, made with the hope of decreasing the tax rate, certain circumstances over which we have no control have added to our expenditures of this year, namely, the increase in our appropriation for old age assistance, the increase in our appropriation for outside aid, an increase in State tax and the loss of revenue from State returns. All these combined have brought the actual saving on the total budget for 1932 down to about $16,000.00. Our budget for this year is about $204,000.00 against $220,400.00 for 1931. These figures may be changed some at our annual town meeting, but as we make out this report they are approximately correct.

The Board of Selectmen have discouraged any expenditure of public money for special work this year, and believe that if the program as now outlined by the different departments is carried out, the closing of this year will show a substantial increase in our surplus without any increase in our tax rate.

The Board of Selectmen wishes to thank the Town Officers for their cooperation and to congratulate the Finance Committee for their untiring efforts in the preparation of the very satisfactory figures presented to the town.

MICHAEL F. ROACH, Chairman,
J. FRANK CURRIE, Clerk,
ROBERT K. KEITH,
Board of Selectmen.

Report of Street Lighting Committee

The lighting committee appointed by you, after several inspections of the town lighting system and of sections mentioned in the town warrant of 1931 beg leave to render the following report by article number—as they appeared in the warrant at the annual town meeting, March 1931.

Article 36—Not immediately necessary.

Article 37—That when lights are re-located they should be placed on the sidewalk side of Bedford Street.

Article 38—That the cross road of Highland Street over North Bedford Street should be protected. Dangerous for pedestrians.

Article 39—Completed.

Article 40—Not advisable at present.

Article 41—Not advisable at present.

Article 42—Not urgent.

Article 43—Not practical. No poles.

Article 54—Disapproved.

Your committee would also recommend that in the near future a replacement or adjustment of many lights should be undertaken. Especially in and around the Centre and on Central Street. That consideration be given of the lights at the corner of Bedford and Whitman Streets.

The Edison Electric Ill. Co. would gladly render advice on relocation, etc.

Your committee has been informed by the Edison Electric Ill. Co. of the following added candlepower and reduction of prices.

80 C. P. replaced by 100 C. P.	$18.00
250 C. P.	$33.00
400 C. P.	$45.00
600 C. P. Semi-ornamental
reduced from $58.00 to	$ 55.00

By the reduction of cost and added candlepower we would recommend that lights be extended towards the town hall, on Central Street. (600 C. P.)

We would suggest that the Tree Warden act in conjunction with the lighting committee so that foliage now obstructing many lights may be trimmed.

We hope that this report will meet with your approval.

Respectfully submitted,

MERTON A. GRAY,
FRED E. CUSHMAN,
CHARLES COLE.

ANNA M. BANNERMAN,
Treasurer of School Board

Report of Board of Education

The committee organized for the year with Henry L. Moorhouse as chairman, Anna M. Bannerman as treasurer and Superintendent James G. Reardan as clerk.

The schools have a very satisfactory standing as compared with towns of our population. They are rated as Class A by the state.

The overcrowded condition of the portable buildings and the poor physical condition of these buildings rendering them unfit for use, necessitated the removal of these pupils to the Town Hall. This arrangement is only a temporary one and more adequate accommodations should be provided by the citizens for their children.

The committee feels that the townspeople should be making plans for a new building to properly house and care for the children of the primary grades. This should be done as soon as economic conditions would warrant for it is not economy nor is it fair to the children to continue to be housed or taught under the conditions which exist at the present time. In the long run it would be an actual saving to erect the first unit, an eight room building, to house the first, second and third grades. The so-called Allen School could accommodate the pupils of grades four, five and six.

The budget for 1932 calls for an appropriation under sixty-seven thousand dollars, which is a saving of ten per cent over the amount expended last year. We do not see how this amount can be reduced further if we are to maintain the high state of efficiency with which our schools are operated today. We have in mind a plan which, if found satisfactory, when put into effect will result in a saving of some thousands of dollars more.

The committee requests that you read carefully the reports of the superintendent, principals and supervisors printed herewith.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY L. MOORHOUSE,
ANNA M. BANNERMAN,
JUDGE H. C. THORNDIKE,
DR. I. I. RICHMOND,
SARA CURRAN,
EDGAR DICKINSON.

Report of Superintendent of Schools

To the Board of Education of East Bridgewater:

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In accordance with your regulations, it pleases me to submit for your consideration the following report of the East Bridgewater Schools for the year ending December 31, 1931.

The attendance for the year, as a whole, has been very good. Punctuality and promptness are important factors in education, and, as such, have been emphasized thruout the grades.

The enrollment of our schools is so large, particularly in the High School and the Allen School, that it presents a real problem in administration and management. However, the interest on the part of both teachers and pupils and the results that are being obtained are to be commended.

The aim of the public school and of each teacher therein should always be to enlarge to the utmost the physical, mental, and moral horizon of every child in the community. The order of the steps in this process is—accuracy, information, self-control, health, culture and character, including, grit, grace and gumption. These are vital factors and are given in the increasing order of their significance.

There seems to be some confusion over the term practical in education. There is no practical education which leaves out any of the factors just enumerated. The serious error of the supporters of practical education is that they emphasize only information and mechanical aptitudes. The whole area of feeling, for instance, is by them obviously ignored. This is a most unfortunate circumstance. It is more important after all, that children be taught to feel right rather than to reason correctly. Ten minutes of real, intelligent sympathy with a poem, be it in words, music or pictorial art, is worth more than many hours in the mere formal study of book-keeping, mechanical drawing, machine work or other so-called practical discipline. The vital forces in all human endeavor spring from the heart more than from the head. This is fundamental in shaping any policy for a system of practical education. It is not so much what is known as how one knows that makes education of practical use to mankind.

The spirit of co-operation between the school and the home in East Bridgewater is deserving of special mention. The townspeople are to be commended upon this spirit of hearty co-operation that exists and it is a pleasure for the teachers and the Superintendent to work with such harmony and active sympathy from which only the best results are to appear.

The cry that children are overworked in the public schools does not apply to East Bridgewater. While home study is usually of great value to children it is not wise for school authorities to insist upon such study for pupils below the High School. It cannot be overlooked, however, that when parents re-enforce the teachers by interested inspection of the pupils school work great benefits invariably follow. Study worthy of the name is in no sense drudgery and should not be considered such. Study is the enjoyable exercise of the mind toward its own development. There is nothing in study that produces disease. A normal child is always benefited by home study. An abnormal child is a special case and should be treated as such. With proper care in food, sleep and healthy exercise, the well child can develop into the dignity of a person only through much careful, directed study.

Parents should stand up for the teachers and defend their authority in every way. The teachers of a community do not complain unjustly of children. On the other hand, children often aim to conceal their own short comings by criticism of the teachers. The position all around should be one of charitable sympathy for the one who works with forty children. Judgment should certainly be withheld until the teacher's side is heard.

The past year we have carried on a testing program which has proven of inestimable benefit to the teachers in the studying of their pupils. It seems wise to continue this program this year, not as an absolute rating scale for judging the mental and academic capacity of the children, but rather as a criterion of the teacher's accomplishments and the success she has had with her subject.

The grateful acknowledgment is made to the estate of the late Horace Smith for the establishment of a scholarship at M. I. T. for graduates of East Bridgewater High School. This scholarship amounts to the income on $20,000 and is sufficient to defray the tuition expense of two students attending the institute from East Bridgewater. Also for the establishment of a prize of $50.00 to be awarded annually to the member of the junior or senior class presenting the best essay on a scientific subject.

The budget for the year 1932 may be made five percent smaller than that of the year 1931. It is felt that, excluding some extraordinary and unlooked for expense, this sum will be adequate to maintain our schools in an efficient manner. This problem of finance in the various town departments is always one of interest to the citizens of a community. The following table shows the cost of education in East Bridgewater as compared to other towns in the same group as classified by the State Department of Education.

Cost per pupil of Education

Grade Schools

Average cost per pupil in Group III.	$71.76
Average cost per pupil in East Bridgewater	$63.74

High School

Average cost per pupil in Group III.	$139.70
Average cost per pupil in East Bridgewater	$130.75

The cities and town of the Commonwealth are divided into four groups for puposes of comparison and classification. East Bridgewater belongs to group three, which comprises 109 towns of less than 5,000 population and maintaining high schools. An examination of the figures given, which are taken from the latest report of the State Department of Education reveals the fact that East Bridgewater is spending less for the support of its grade schools than the average spent in group III. Comparing also the cost per pupil for high schools we find that this town is spending less than the average in its own group.

The cost of education in East Bridgewater has increased 46 percent in the last ten years, whereas, the average cost increase for the state has been 68 percent. I present these figures to you for the purpose of showing that although our local costs have increased we have not approximated the average state increase to any appreciable extent.

This year the cost of our schools has increased because of overcrowded conditions. The increased enrollment at the Allen School necessitated the addition of extra teachers. The portable buildings, reported in past years unfit for use, were abandoned and the pupils transferred to the Town Hall. This use of the Town Hall for school purposes cannot continue indefinitely, and some plan for additional accommodations or readjustment of our program should be given serious consideration. There is a temporary solution to our problem of housing, the junior high school can be transferred to the senior high school building organizing upon the two platoon system, the senior high school attending sessions during the morning and the junior high school attending sessions during the afternoon.

The real permanent solution of our problem is the erecting of a new building, but, with industrial and economic conditions, both locally and generally, being as they are, the launching of a building program at this time seems unwise.

The school exhibit held last spring displayed to the many townspeople the high standard of work being accomplished by our many schools in their various departments. We had planned another exhibit this spring, but, in view of the fact that the Town Hall is occupied for school purposes, we feel that the type of exhibit must necessarily be changed. We expect to hold a parents' visiting night in the near future when all the teachers will be at their desks in the various rooms and the parents are urged to visit and discuss their problems with them. The exhibit will be held on the same evening and the displays will be arranged on the walls of the classrooms.

Teachers' meetings have been held regularly throughout the year. These meetings have been in the form of an institute with Bridgewater and East Bridgewater combining. The program in general has been—brief musical entertainment, inspirational speaker and question box periods of discussion. We hope to continue this form of meeting thruout 1932.

Once again I wish to call the attention of the Board to the need of lights and telephones in the district schools. The lost time in class procedure and the evil effects upon the sight of our children are too great to permit this condition to continue for any longer period of time.

I believe the general efficiency of our schools has been maintained and that a high standard of work has resulted. From all reports received concerning recent graduates who are now in institutions of higher learning, we have every reason to believe that the reputation of East Bridgewater High School is being honourably maintained abroad. The school enjoys a Class A rating by the State Department of Education, holds the certificating privilege granted by the New England College Certificate Board, and has special certificates to admit graduates to Worcester Polytechnic Institute and Dartmouth College.

I wish to call your attention to the statistics in the appendix of this report and to the reports of the principals and supervisors.

In conclusion, may I again express my appreciation for the support and spirit of cooperation that exists between the school board, teachers, parents and pupils.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES G. REARDAN,
Supt. of Schools.

Report of the Principal of High School

Mr. James G. Reardan,
Superintendent of Schools,
East Bridgewater, Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Reardan:

The following constitutes my third annual report as Principal of the East Bridgewater High School.

The High School has been functioning for the past year with but very few changes affecting the actual operation of the organization. At the present our curricula of studies remains intact except for the relocation of one or two upper class subjects. Because of the heavy enrollment in four courses, namely Ancient History, Law and Economics, Biology and second year French—it was necessary to have two classes in each of these subjects thereby increasing the present difficulty of finding suitable accommodations for all classes during each period of the day. In assigning class rooms this present school year it was found necessary to make use of the gymnasium practically three-fourths of the time and to place several regular academic classes in the lunch room. I regret to announce that because of the full programs which our teachers are carrying and the added fact that it is impossible to meet more than one eighth of our pupils in gymnasium classes in any one week that a continuance of our physical education work is entirely impossible at the present.

Splendid progress has been attained in all of our regular courses and also in the extra curricula activities which call to the front so many of our students and which give full sway to the development of special talents.

A splendid group of thirty-five pupils was graduated last June with appropriate exercises which enlisted the approval of all. One innovation which proved to be a complete success was tried out in connection with the class day exercises. Instead of making it necessary for the spectators to brave the direct heat of the sun and the noise of traffic on Bedford Street, we transferred our Class Day Program to Strong Field, held the exercises in the morning and thereby eliminating the before mentioned two evils.

It is quite encouraging to again find that our graduates are striving for higher honors in the field of learning as quite a goodly number of the 1931 class are pursuing their studies in other institutions. Schools and colleges chosen include Sargent School of Physical Education, Bridgewater Normal, Villanova College, Burdett Business College, Bryant & Stratton Business College, Dalhousie University, Massachusetts State College, Wentworth Institute, Thayer Academy, Chandler Secretarial School and several training schools for nurses.

From the standpoint of pupil benefit and number of games won it is safe to say that our athletic situation for the past year was above the average. Nearly sixty-five percent of the boys and approximately thirty-five to forty percent of the girls were able to participate in some form of athletics or other including all four major sports with outside school competition and intra-mural games of basketball. On the other hand we find ourselves constantly harassed by the need of finances to suitably furnish our teams with the proper playing equipment and to defray all expenses incidental to the maintenance of practice sessions and actual play of the various games. In fact the situation has been particularly trying in the past year, no doubt augmented by the present financial depression.

I should like to take the opportunity here to thank the townspeople and especially members of the press who have so faithfully supported the various enterprises such as benefit whists, tag days, stunt nights, etc., which we must foster in order to raise these funds for athletic materials and maintenance of play.

We hope to continue the work started in prize speaking last Spring in which quite a few pupils participated. Our representatives at the three cornered speaking contests last May acquitted themselves nobly and all but captured one of the individual prizes.

Let me suggest once more to the parents through you, the necessity of our pupils being punctual in their attendance, especially in the morning. We must remember that certain lifelong habits are acquired during attendance in our public schools and the habit of being "on time" and always present is a good one.

Allow me to recommend, as in last year's report, the need of individual lockers for both boys and girls. Proper safeguarding of the wearing apparel, etc., of our youngsters, can hardly be possible without the aid of suitable lockers.

In conclusion I would like to express my appreciation to the school authorities, to yourself and all others who have so generously co-operated with us in making our work a success.

Respectfully submitted,

J. P. CHEEVER,
Principal of High School.

ANNUAL REPORT OF
ALLEN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Mr. James G. Reardan,
Superintendent of Schools.

The report of the Principal of the Allen School is herewith submitted:

Teaching Personnel

The same as last year with few exceptions.

Miss Nielsen was transferred from the West School to Grade VII.

Miss Odabashian was elected to fill the position of assistant to teachers, left vacant by the transfer of Miss Swift to the Eastville School.

Equipment—New

30 movable desks and chairs.

5 movable blackboards.

Books

Necessary replacements.

Dodge-Lackey Geographies—Grades VII. & VIII.

Lunch

Mid-morning service.

About the same number of children are purchasing milk as in previous years. We wish to extend our thanks to Mr. A. R. Parker and to the Eastern Star for their timely aid in providing milk for under-nourished children.

With our facilities we are necessarily limited in the variety of our menus at the noon lunch, but we feel that more pupils might directly benefit by this service.

Health

Excellent. This fact is clearly shown by attendance records. Much credit is due our very competent school nurse, Miss Ruth Evans, who assists and advises us on all problems relative to health.

100 per cent enrollment.

$10.00 subscribed to National Children's Fund.

Favors and place cards sent to Veterans' Hospital.

4-H Clubs

Enrollment

Sewing Club	First year	17	Miss McNamara
Sewing Club	Advanced	16	Mrs. Murray
Lunch Box		15	Miss White
Handicraft, Girls'		41	Miss Roach
Handicraft, Boys'		82	Miss Nielsen
			Mrs. Curley

171 Total

Work

100% Banner Clubs.

Assisted Red Cross in repairing and painting toys for children at Christmas.

Housing

Inadequate.

Attendance

Excellent. This fact is one of several which speaks well of the interest and enthusiasm of the pupils and the co-operation of the parents.

Tardiness

On examination of records it is found that the same relatively small number of pupils cause 98% of the tradiness in our classrooms. Punishment and appeal to the individual child seem to produce little effect if any in the home, there exists an indifference to the need for the acquisition of the habit of punctuality. May we bespeak the co-operation of those homes in which it is known that children are habitually tardy for their school work?

Character Education and Citizenship

Fifteen minutes each morning is assigned for this, but no definite assignment of time can be made for all the character education that an experienced and skillful teacher does in her class-room or on the playground.

Patriotic Exercise

Each morning, weather permitting, a flag raising is held. Two boys, chosen weekly because of good citizenship, raise the flag, accompanied by the "Call to the Colors" sounded by Donald White, on the bugle. Following this the salute to the flag is given.

Tests

Last spring a battery of intelligence and achievement tests was given. These gave us as far as it is possible to obtain an accurate basis for graduation. The results of these tests are however only one of several factors in determining promotion or placement in grades.

Academic Subjects

The same courses of study have been followed with gratifying results. A revision and supplementing of these courses is in progress and we hope to have new courses in operation before the close of the school year.

Respectfully submitted,

INA M. CURLEY,

Principal Allen School.

ANNUAL REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC

Supt. J. G. Reardan,
East Bridgewater, Mass.
Dear Sir:

Herewith submit the annual report of the Supervisor of Music for the year 1931.

The past year the work in this department has progressed very satisfactorily and while there is opportunity for improvement we must remember that we cannot expect from children what would be looked for in adults. The pupils of the Allen School participated in a program of Christmas carols again this year and it was a pleasure to see some of the parents and friends of the pupils there to hear this inspiring music.

A new orchestra has been formed at the Allen School. The violinists, numbering seven, are pupils from the classes of Miss Ruth Perkins and show that violin class instruction is an advantage. In addition to the violins we have a bass viol, two trumpets, two clarinets, one saxophone, one trombone, drums and piano.

The high school chorus numbers about 140 and it is a pleasure to report that the boys are electing chorus and Glee Club in larger numbers. In the chorus there are 47 basses and 17 tenors, which is a larger number than we have had the past two years. The Girls and Boys Glee Clubs have grown and are meeting weekly.

The development of the High School Orchestra has presented quite a problem. All of the girls and boys that play in the band would like to play in the orchestra and if such a thing is allowed the string section would be overbalanced. An orchestra should be built up around the string section and so it has been impossible to use everyone that has elected orchestra. Orchestra, while it is elective, it's very nature requires a certain amount of selectivity. Several of the parents have spoken to me and feel that their son or daughter should play in the orchestra (providing they are capable of playing the music) and get credit for this work whether the orchestra remains balanced or not. Looking at this problem from a musical standpoint the best results only can be attained by a balanced unit.

The Band has reached the point where it is accepted as a part of our community, to be used when occasions arise. We have given several concerts and have had many favorable comments. Financially, we have had a very successful year and below is given a statement as of January 1st, 1932.

	Received	Expended
Band Concert, October 2	$123.62
Donation, October 8	35.88
Band Concert, November 6	35.88
Band Concert, November 16	25.00
Uniforms, November 8		$159.25
Expenses, until Jan. 1st		16.00
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	$220.38	$175.25
Balance in E. B. Bank		$45.13.

The band owns the following instruments:

3 trombones	Value	$73.00
3 alto horns	"	69.00

We are still using the instruments which were so kindly loaned to us by the Elmwood Band.

I would like to emphasize again the fact that trumpets and alto saxophones do not make an orchestra or Band. It is essential to have children study other instruments such as baritone horn, bass horn, clarinets, trombone and drums. Parents can assist very much in influencing their children to study these lesser known instruments.

I wish to thank the school committee for the Sousaphone which was purchased for the band. This instrument was much needed and is greatly appreciated.

In closing this report I wish to thank you, Mr. Cheever, Mrs. Curley and all of the teachers for their co-operation with me and interest in the subject.

Respectfully submitted,

LUTHER CHURCHILL,
Supervisor of Music.

ANNUAL REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF ART

Mr. James G. Reardan,
Superintendent of Schools.

Dear Sir:

The close of the school year affords a welcome opportunity to review the accomplishments of the past year. Art is the type of work that goes on quietly and yet with a tremendous significance as far as the future happiness of the individual and the cultural life of the community are concerned. Educational leaders are rediscovering the wealth of artistic ability inherent in the child. The art work in the schools is giving a new insight into this ability and encourages further expression of the child's own individuality under guidance.

The work in the grade schools has been carried on much the same as last year. Nature drawing was stressed extensively in the fall. This arouses a lively interest in the laws of order as manifested by nature and manufactured objects in our every day world. Design followed leading the child to the joy of using these orderly arrangements as the basis of his own creative attempts to achieve a pleasing and satisfactory arrangement. To do this there must be great consideration of (1) color, (2) lines and shapes and their relation to each other and (3) the laws of order including (a) balance, (b) rhythm (c) harmony. In order to make this design work seem of greatest importance it was applied to problems in the form of useful Christmas gifts for the children's mothers and fathers. These problems included sache folders, calendars, match scratchers, shaving pads, handkerchief holders, boxes, gift folders, receipt and recipe holders, hot dish mats, crayonex doilies, crayonex button bags, string boxes, book ends and tree ornaments.

Correlated closely with illustrative drawing and design is construction work. This consists of folding, cutting, pasting, modeling and measuring, stressing accuracy and neatness. The work includes the making of boxes, baskets, envelopes, buildings of all kinds, vehicles, toys, furniture, animals and people. Figure drawing has been studied considerably in the lower grades. This permits the children a great use of freedom in expressing their word pictures. This year this work will be correlated with other subjects of the curriculum such as reading and history. In the outside schools much time is given to project sand table work, again allowing the children to correlate their art work with other school subjects.

Lettering is stressed in the junior high grades and later applied to health posters thus greatly emphasizing the necessity of fresh air, cleanliness, proper food and care of the body.

Owing to lack of proper equipment and suitable working conditions in the high school it makes it most difficult to progress as fast as we desire. Much interest, however, has been shown in craft work. This is really a course in applied art whereby our design and drawing is expressed within the limitations of definite mediums. Block printing applied to breakfast sets, crackled paper lamp shades, waste paper baskets, stencil work, tile painting, jesso jewel boxes, marionettes, batick designing and painting etc. has been carried on with the objective of enabling the pupils to apply art in home decoration and in the planning of clothes. This broader program aims not only to give technical training to the talented few but also to equip every student with such training that will enable him to attain greater joy and increased richness of life.

A new course in high school this year that aroused much interest is the sketch class held for two hours after school once a week. This class was primarily formed for pupils who desired to obtain a greater knowledge of advance work and to develop their ability in advanced drawing. The class numbers about thirty pupils. Drawing from life in charcoal, pastel drawing of still life groups and advance color theory has been taken up. The course will continue with pencil sketching and pen and ink work. This work compels the pupils to work individually and think independently.

The art work of the pupils of East Bridgewater stood out strongly with that of the other schools of Plymouth County at the art exhibition held in connection with the Plymouth County Teachers' Association Convention at the Bridgewater Normal School in October.

Parallel with the practical side of art study in the high school there should be a course in art appreciation—a study of the old masters and their masterpieces which have come down to us through the ages and contributed so much to a finer and higher sense of the appreciation of the beautiful. I recommend that such a course be initiated next year.

The art work lays a foundation for the illustration of ideas which cannot be presented in words. It provides an understanding of the importance of harmony in both home and in business decoration and arrangement. It demonstrates where true economy may be practiced in the selection of many materials and above all it leads to the appreciation of the beautiful in nature, the home and in industry. With these objectives in mind the course in study has been laid out tending to make the instruction most interesting and of greatest practical value to the pupils generally.

In conclusion I wish to acknowledge the helpful support of the superintendent of schools and teachers. Their co-operation has made it possible for us to finish another profitable year.

Respectfully submitted,

EMMA PORTER LENNON,
Art Supervisor.

ANNUAL REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF DIATETICS

To the Superintendent of Schools,
Mr. James G. Reardan,
East Bridgewater, Massachusetts.

Dear Sir:

I herewith submit my annual report as Supervisor of Diatetics in the East Bridgewater High School.

The work so far this year has been most successful. Interest in the Domestic Arts department is causing a steady increase of enrollment in all classes year after year.

The Aims of this department are as follows:

General Aims: To teach the child High Appreciation of Home Life, Better Standard of Living in Relation to Healthful Bodies.

The Specific Aims: Efficiency; Economy; Habit Formation, Whatever is worth doing is worth doing well; Accuracy; Personal Cleanliness; Saving Time; Due Consideration for Parents and other Members of the Household; Meal Planning.

Social Aims: To Teach Good Manners—Politeness is especially emphasized; Effect of proper foods and Disposition and vice versa; Sociability attained from eating together; Esthetic side of foods—Happiness gained from serving attractive meals and finally, of utmost importance “GOOD HEALTH.”

Since my last report my classes have had the practical experience of serving three very delicious lunches to the teachers who attended the Institute Meetings including teachers from the three Bridgewater. The girls not only received practical experience but were highly complimented for their excellent work, which was very gratifying.

This past December girls from my department served a most tempting dinner to the officers and Executive Committee of the Plymouth County Teachers Association of which our Superintendent of Schools holds the office of President. This dinner, as well as others, has afforded the girls the opportunities of such practical experience as table service, Waiting on table, Full Preparation of the Meal and Table Decorations, all of which is supervised by the instructor.

There are several other dinners which will take place in the activities of the school year and the girls will assist in serving them. I believe, it cannot be too strongly emphasized that the nature of this work adds much to the practical experience of the student.

I am very pleased and interested to learn that one of my girls makes pastry and sells it to earn a little “pin” money and also I have a few girls in my classes who are doing all the cooking at home. This proves that the training gained in our school goes beyond the four walls of our class rooms.

The Lunch Room is continuing to fulfill its original aim of serving an attractive and nutritious lunch at minimum cost. This work is carried on under my direction with the assistance of seventeen girls who help to prepare the hot dishes, sandwiches, dessert and beverages which are served each day at noon recess. The Lunch Room, as in the past six years, is self-supporting.

As a progressive measure, the laboratory classes would greatly appreciate the addition of another sink to the class room. The lunch room assistants as well as Foods classes are endeavoring to use the one sink at the same time. This condition has been existing for a long while.

The Lunch Room hopes to be able to complete the payments by June 1932, on the Kelvinator which it has been trying to earn in the past two years.

In conclusion, I wish to express to the parents, Superintendent of Schools, and to the Board of Education my sincere appreciation for their support and co-operation in making this a successful year.

Respectfully submitted,

BEATRICE M. BELYEA,

Supervisor of Dietetics.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUPERVISOR OF SEWING

Mr. James G. Reardan,
Superintendent of Schools,
East Bridgewater, Massachusetts.

Dear Sir:

I herewith submit my second annual report of work accomplished as Supervisor of Sewing in the East Bridgewater schools.

The sixth grade have learned the nine stitches used in ordinary sewing and have used them on the articles they have made, after first practicing the stitches on a sampler. At Christmas time the pupils brought in gifts to work on, as they did last year. Each pupil is required to keep a notebook which is credited towards her work. The first project the sixth grade makes is a bag to hold their equipment. This bag deals with the use of pins, the nine stitches, a plain seam, a French seam, and some form of decoration. When this is finished the children make a bias-bound decorated holder and a simple garment if there is time.

The seventh grade have reviewed the nine stitches. The first problem is a cooking apron. This apron is made completely by hand, using the stitches learned in the armseyes and hem, applying a hemmed-on band, applying a tape by overhanding, making button holes and sewing on buttons. A simple cap is made using overhanding. The work usually takes up most of the school year, as sewing by hand is very slow especially when the worker is unskilled. A notebook is required in this grade also.

The eighth grade have learned the parts of the machine which are most important and the use of the machine. The eighth grade makes an undergarment after a discussion in class as to the suitability of materials and the choice of patterns. The pupils cut out this garment themselves, under supervision. The fell seam is used on this problem and the pupils have a choice of neck and armseye finishings. They keep a notebook in which they have all the work of the other two years, directions for dress construction, the use of a commercial pattern and garment cutting. When the garment is finished the girls may make a simple dress. Some make their graduation dresses.

There are three High school students who meet at various times for instruction. Most of their work is accomplished outside of the class room. The pupils make a booklet showing the uses of two of the machine attachments, the binder and the hemmer. These samplers require much practice. In the notebooks the pupils have an inventory outline by which they check over their wardrobe to see what they need to make and what garments need renovating. They are given methods for washing, ironing and removing stains. The clothes to be renovated are altered under supervision. The girls make any article they wish or a whole outfit.

The aim is: To teach the necessary useful steps in sewing which can be used again and again.

The individual aim is: To work with the other courses in sewing, to interest the child and to help her.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCES A. STEARNS,

Supervisor of Sewing.

ANNUAL REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF ATTENDANCE AND SCHOOL SAFETY

Mr. James G. Reardan,
Superintendent of Schools,
East Bridgewater, Mass.

Dear Sir:

The following is respectfully submitted as my annual report as Supervisor of Attendance and School Safety from January 1, 1931 to December 31, 1931.

Number of Absences reported by Teachers	30
Number of Cases Investigated	63

Number of Children under sixteen at work without certificates	2
Number of Parents notified to send Children to School. (Children who had never attended school)	4
Number of Truants, 1st offence	13
Number of Tardy Cases Investigation	15
Number of Stores and Factories Visited	13

I have visited all the schools at intervals throughout the year and found conditions very good. The children have been instructed by me on my visits on the safety problems about the motor hazards that they might come in contact with to and from school. I have had wonderful co-operation from all the teachers and no child is allowed to cross the street after school sessions without a police officer or one of the teachers in attendance. Several operators have been punished the past year for not slowing down at school cross walks. We went through the year 1931 without a fatal accident and will try hard during the coming year to have the same good record.

I want to thank the Superintendent, all the teachers, the parents, and the boys and girls who have helped me in the performance of my duty.

Respectfully submitted,

EVERETT F. RUSSELL,
Supervisor of Attendance and School Safety.

ANNUAL REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE'S WORK

To Mr. Reardan and Members of the School Committee:

I herewith submit the annual report of the school nurse for the year ending December 31, 1931.

The pupils in the elementary grades were weighed four times during the year, at each weighing special emphasis was placed upon gain or growth. Children who showed a loss of weight were given special attention and a home visit was made to determine the cause. The number of children visited for this purpose were few in number. Each year the children are playing the rules of the game "Health" better and harder and it is the following of simple health habits that increase the gain or growth in which each child is interested.

Mid-morning milk is served in all the schools and due to the generosity of many individuals and community organizations numerous children, who might not otherwise have it are supplied with milk.

There is a marked improvement in the cleanliness of hands, teeth and etc., which is due to the interest created by the teachers in their morning inspections.

Assistance was given Dr. Bannerman in his annual examination of the children. At this time 187 children were found with tonsil defects, although during the year 30 children were operated upon for the removal of tonsils and adenoids. Five of this number were children entering school for the first time. These defects were found and correction advised by Dr. Harris in the second annual summer round-up, which was conducted by the East Bridgewater P. H. N. Association. In this summer round-up 54% of the children entering school for the first time were examined either by Dr. Harris or by their own family physician. All children entering school in September, except three were vaccinated.

Dental defects were corrected through our second dental campaign. During the school year 275 children were given dental certificates for having all necessary dental work completed. 190 of this number had existing dental defects corrected at dental clinic. Children in the first four grades having the necessary work completed were given a small Prophylactic tooth brush and a sample tube of Pepsodent tooth paste. During the school year 235 children made 848 visits to 43 clinics. The following work was accomplished.

Cleanings, 232.

Temporary Fillings, 210.

Permanent Fillings, 383.

Extractions, 127.

Another dental campaign was launched last fall. Clinics, this year are being conducted bi-weekly for the children in the first four grades.

A hearing test with the audiometer was given to all pupils from the third grade through the High School. This test was made possible through the courtesy of the Plymouth County Health Association. The results of this test showed that 33 pupils or about 5% had a sufficient loss of hearing to warrant and advise Ear Specialist attention.

During May and June Dr. Richard McKnight conducted the third and last diphtheria prevention clinic. Records now show that 75% of the school children and about 37% of the pre-school children are immunized against diphtheria.

Child Health Day was observed at the dairy grounds of Mr. A. R. Parker in May with all the schools participating. Two pageants were given by the school children. "The Toy Shop", by the primary grades and "The Health of America" by the intermediate grades and Allen Junior High. Health tags were awarded at this time. 275 children received Teeth Tags, 205 were given Physical Fit Tags and all children received Improvement Tags.

There was more communicable disease during the past year than in the previous year. Through the winter and spring months there was an epidemic of Chicken-Pox, followed by one of German Measles. All cases were mild but necessitated a loss of time from school. During the past fall there was another outbreak of Chicken-Pox in one of the outside schools. There were also several cases of Scarlet Fever and a few cases of whooping cough.

Five children attended the Plymouth County Health Camp for 8 weeks last summer. Each child showed a substantial gain in weight, increased vitality and a beautiful sun-tan.

During the school months of 1931 50 ill children were carried home, 700 homes visited, 450 school visits made and 50 sanitary inspections were made.

In these sanitary inspections only the drinking and hand washing facilities are satisfactory. Heat and lighting conditions, toilet facilities, particularly in the rural schools remain as unsatisfactory as in previous years. However, teachers and pupils together are trying to alleviate and overcome these situations to the best of their ability.

The outstanding health accomplishment of the year in the schools was given this fall through the Chadwick Clinic. 75% of the pupils from the first grade through the High School availed themselves of this opportunity. Chadwick clinics have been conducted throughout the State of Massachusetts during the last ten years for the prevention of Tuberculosis. A simple tuberculin test on the arm was first given. This test was made to determine the presence of the tubercle bacillus in the body. All pupils reacting to this test were X-Rayed. The X-Ray determined whether or not a chalk-like substance had been deposited in the lymph glands, nature's way of surrounding the tubercle bacillus. Pupils showing suspicious X-Rays were given a thorough chest examination. At this examination the parents had opportunity to interview a nutritionist, who talked with the children and parents, suggesting changes in the diet, and helping them with the formation of better health habits. At this clinic 600 children were tested, 118 were X-Rayed and 24 were examined. Many out of town meetings, conferences and institutes were attended. Much assistance and help was gained by these meetings.

Health teaching programs were carried out in the elementary grades by the teachers who correlate reading, drawing, spelling and music with hygiene as an aid in this work the first two books in the Andres and Bragg health series have been placed in grades 2 and 3 respectively. These books are intended to arouse interest in forming health habits through the attractive medium of imaginative stories, drawing exercises, story telling and dramatization.

In closing this report I wish to express my appreciation of co-operation received from the teachers, parents, and children of East Bridgewater.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTH EVANS,
School Nurse.

ANNUAL REPORT OF SCHOOL DENTIST

Superintendent of Schools,
East Bridgewater, Mass.

Dear. Mr. Reardan:

As School Dentist I am pleased to report on the results of my examination and work as School Dentist.

Each year as I make the examination in the schools I find conditions better as regards clean healthy mouths of the children in general. This year is no exception and shows that as a result of the educational program of the School Nurse and teachers the children are keeping their teeth in very clean condition.

I still find quite a lot of dental defects in the upper grades but this is being gradually overcome as children who have been able to have work done in clinic and by their dentist are advancing to these grades. In the lower grades I find that this problem has been quite overcome through the work in the clinic; and defects corrected by each ones private dentist until we find that more Dental Certificates are being given out at the first of this school year than ever before.

I think that the great value of such a program as we have in our schools, being preventive as it is, is the creation of a different attitude among the children as to having dental work done. I feel that this is being accomplished for I find that in general there is not the fear of having the work done that used to be so noticeable, but instead a spirit of confidence and interest which is quite noticeable in the lower grades particularly.

Naturally without the co-operation of teachers and organizations connected with the dental program it would be impossible for the School Nurse and myself to accomplish this and we are grateful for their support.

I feel that the Dental Program which you and the School Committee and Public Health Nursing Association are sponsoring is one to be proud of.

Very truly yours,

DR. H. A. FRASER,

CLASS ODE

SHIPS OF YOUTH

Sailing out on an ocean of blue
Cargo-laden, for ports afar
There's a ship that will e'er be held fast
To its course by a guiding star;
On the deep waters' waves to far climes,
With that star's silver gleam to lead,
Bravely forth does this ship onward press
With a spirit of faith its creed.

Starting forth with the Spirit of Youth
Ready poised on the waves of life,
We are ships launching out on the sea,
Always eager to face the strife;
For new glories and ventures we aim
Ever ready to meet the need;
We are led by an ardor divine,
With a spirit of faith our creed.

ANNUAL TOWN MEETING

—ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Town Hall, March 7, 1932

Pursuant to a warrant signed by the Selectmen and the Constable's return thereon, the annual election of Town Officers was held at the Town Hall on Saturday, March 12, 1932. A partial reading of the warrant to include the call of the meeting, Article 28 and the Constable's return, was made by Town Clerk Michael J. McCarthy.

Specimen ballots, instruction and penalty cards were posted as required by law.

The election officers appointed by the Selectmen were sworn to the faithful performance of their duty by the Town Clerk.

The ballot box was opened and examined by the election officers and the register set at 0000.

A box said to contain two thousand ballots was delivered by the Town Clerk to the election officers and a receipt obtained therefor.

All the preliminaries of law having been complied with the Moderator Fred E. Fuller declared the polls open at 6. A. M.

At 6 P. M. on the same day it was moved by J. Frank Currie and duly seconded, "That the polls be now declared closed". The motion was carried and the Moderator declared the polls closed.

On the check the names of 730 men and 599 women were checked as voting.

The total number of ballots cast was 1,327. The unused ballots were returned by the ballot clerks after the polls closed.

When the tabulations were completed the marked ballots and all unused ballots and election records were sealed in envelopes as required by law.

Tabulation of the vote being completed at 11.08 P. M. by the tellers, the Moderator announced the vote as follows:

PRESIDENTIAL AND STATE ELECTION

November 8, 1932

Pursuant to a Warrant signed by the Board of Selectmen, dated October 24, 1932, duly posted and the Constable's Return thereon, the Presidential and State Election was held at the Town Hall on November 8, 1932.

The meeting was called to order at the Town Hall at 6.00 A. M. on November 8, 1932, by Michael F. Roach, Chairman of the Board of Selectmen. The Warrant and Constable's return was read by Town Clerk Michael J. McCarthy.

The Election Officers appointed by the Selectmen were sworn to the faithful performance of their duties by the Town Clerk.

Specimen ballots, penalty and instruction cards and books with information on referendum questions were duly posted as required by law.

The ballot box was examined by the Election Officers and found to be empty. The register was set at 0000.

Three sealed boxes said to contain twenty-two hundred and eleven ballots were delivered by the Town Clerk to the ballot clerks and a receipt obtained therefor.

All preliminaries of law having been complied with the polls were declared open at 6.00 A. M.

The counting of ballots was started at 9.42 A. M.

The polls were declared closed at 8.00 P. M., the same day. After the close of the polls, the envelopes said to contain ballots of absentee voters were opened and the names checked on the voting list and the ballots deposited in the ballot box.

At the close of balloting the ballot box registered 1,477, and error of 1.

The total number of ballots removed was 1,476. On the list of women voters, six hundred and eighty names were checked as having voted, and on the list of male voters seven hundred and ninety-six names were checked as having voted. After the close of the polls the ballot clerks returned seven hundred and forty-six ballots.

Tabulations of the vote being completed at 2.46 A. M. on November 9, 1932, the result of the balloting was announced as follows:

ABSTRACT FROM CHAPTER 99 OF THE REVISED
LAWS OF MASSACHUSETTS

Sec. 3. Physicians and midwives shall, within forty-eight hours after the birth of every child in cases of which they were in charge, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a notice stating the date and place of the birth, giving the street number if any, color and the family name. They shall within fifteen days after the birth, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a report of the birth, stating the date and place, the name, if any, of the child, its sex and color, and the names, ages, places of birth, occupations and residences of the parents, giving the street number, if there be any, and the number of the ward in a city, the maiden name of the mother, if the full return is not made within the forty-eight hours.

The fee of the physician or midwife shall be twenty-five cents for each birth so reported. A physician or midwife who neglects to report each birth within forty-eight hours or fifteen days thereafter, shall for each offense forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 6. Parents, within forty days after the birth of a child, and every householder within forty days after a birth in his house, shall cause notice thereof to be given to the clerk of the city or town in which child is born.

The facts required for record, as stated in section 3, shall, so far as known or obtainable, be included in every notice given under the provision of this section.

Sec. 8. A parent, or other persons who, by section 6, is required to give, or cause to be given, notice of a birth or death, who neglects to do so for ten days after the time limited therefor, shall forfeit not more than five dollars for each offense.

Sec. 24. The Town Clerk will furnish blanks for returns of births to parents, householders, physicians and midwives who apply therefor.

Report of the Fire Department

During the year the Department responded to 50 alarms; 23 District and 27 still or telephone alarms.

Valuation of property where fire occurred $173,025.00

Total loss on property 26,355.00

Amount of insurance paid on property 17,987.14

We have issued six garage permits, two permits to install gas tanks and store gasoline, two permits for furnace oil heaters, 53 permits for the storage of fuel oil, six permits for sale of fire works, three permits for use of dynamite.

Our old Maxim Fire Truck broke down on March 5th while responding to an alarm from Pine street, and the new Maxim was put in service July 3.

At the Central Fire Station there is a Maxim Tripple Combination Truck (750 gal. pump capacity) and one Horse drawn Hook and Ladder Truck, both fully equipped. At the Elmwood station, one International Chemical Combination Truck and one horse drawn Hook and Ladder Truck, fully equipped.

The department has 3,000 feet double jacket rubber lined cotton jacket hose, 2½-inch diameter.

In sending in an alarm for fire, please go to the nearest telephone and call for the East Bridgewater central operator. Tell her there is a fire in District No....., at Mr.....s residence, or call emergency No. 20 and tell whoever answers that there is a fire at Mr.s residence in District No.....

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM E. MURPHY,

Librarian's Report

To the Board of Trustees of the Public Library:

I submit the annual report of the year ending December 31, 1932.

CIRCULATION

During 1932 the public library circulated 54,026 books and periodicals. This represents over 15 books per capita, which is one of the largest per capita ratings in the state.

Excluding reference books, there are less than 12,000 books in active circulation in the library. This number is being constantly depleted due to usage and contact with contagious diseases. The problem of replacement is a grave one. While maintaining such a progressive institution, it is impossible to purchase books from the limited appropriation which we receive from the town. Were it not for trust funds we should be unable to purchase either replacements or new books. The amount realized from these funds, if viewed with consideration of the number of books needed for our increased circulation as well as the varied requests our library is forced to meet, is woefully inadequate.

ACTIVITIES

In June, under the auspices of the library, Mr. and Mrs. John Cronan, story tellers for the Boston Public Library, entertained the school children from the fourth through the eighth grades.

Forty-seven school deposits were made during the year, and twenty-six reading certificates were presented.

The State Division of Public Libraries has proved its inestimable value to us. Through its aid, we have been privileged to borrow many books which we cannot own, in addition to small libraries in the Polish, Italian and Portuguese languages.

Fifty-two books were discarded because of scarlet fever contact.

The Garden Club, The Mothers' Club, and the Woman's Club used the library for special meetings.

Special exhibits were held during book week in November. "A Story Book Tour of America" acquainted the children with new and old books which relate to America.

GIFTS

Under the will of the late Arthur T. Herrick, a former resident, a miscellaneous collection of books was bequeathed to the library.

Mr. Josiah A. Kent gave the library a set of "The Messages and Papers of the Presidents."

Mr. Charles F. Mann presented the library with a set of histories, "World Progress."

Several gifts of books, magazines, and book-ends have been received.

Never have gifts meant more to the library, for never before has there been such a demand for library service. I acknowledge these gifts with gratitude.

In conclusion, I thank the library assistants for their loyal help, and the Board of Trustees for their cooperation and support.

During the past year the Extension Service has been called upon to fill a more important place in Plymouth County than ever before. Narrow margins of profit have made the best farming practices of utmost importance, hundreds of families have turned to agriculture as a help toward their support. Homemakers have felt more than ever the need to buy foods and clothing to the best advantage and to make the most satisfactory use of materials at hand.

The Extension Service has been called upon increasingly by those feeling the pressure of present conditions to teach methods by which established farmers may continue to make a profit, new men entering the field may avoid unnecessary mistakes and families may use their resources to the best advantage. Boys and girls, through membership in 4-H clubs, have learned to assist in meeting the problems of their parents and have found pleasure and profit in doing so.

During the year 7,300 different people received advice and help from the Extension Service. 711 meetings were held with a total attendance of 24,222. 77,099 circular letters were mailed. 5,103 telephone calls received. Farm and home visits totaled 1,227 and office calls 1,243. There were 531 women enrolled in homemaking projects and 1,352 boys and girls in the 4-H clubs. These clubs held 1,215 meetings with a total attendance of 20,430.

The following report tells briefly some of the ways in which this work directly affected the citizens of East Bridgewater. Its results can not be readily expressed in figures.

Fifty-six personal visits were paid by the Agricultural agent to farmers in East Bridgewater in order to give some information or advice affecting their business. At meetings of the Satucket herd improvement association, speakers were frequently supplied by the Extension Service. Many of the poultrymen of the town have found the egg auction a help in the solution of their marketing problems. Ninety-four men received regularly timely letters and circulars on pest control, crop production and the management of poultry and livestock. Poultrymen and dairymen regularly attended meetings and tours held in other towns under Extension Service auspices.

HOME DEMONSTRATION WORK

A four-meeting unit in the Home Management program was completed in this town. The first year's program was completed in the Home Grounds Improvement project. Two meetings were held in Remodeling Clothing. Nearly two hundred home-makers availed themselves of the letter service in canning, gardening, child management and general subjects. The Annual Home-maker's Day for the county was held in East Bridgewater.

CLUB WORK

Ninety-five girls and 108 boys were enrolled in 4-H clubs in East Bridgewater in 1932.

The girls studied one of the following programs—clothing, lunch box, supper, and home craft. Each of these clubs were under the supervision of an adult leader and each club received a banner seal for their club charter.

In order to receive this seal every member enrolled must finish the requirements, exhibit articles made, and submit a written record to the county club agent.

First prize in the room improvement contest was won by Arlene Robichaud.

Several of the clothing club girls entered the county dress contest which is held annually on Field Day. Evelyn Smith won first place in the party dress class and Phyllis Kingman won second place.

Evelyn Stickney won 3rd place in the school dress class.

Evelyn Smith tied for third place in the State Party Dress contest. Blue ribbons were awarded to all girls who received above a certain number of points. Evelyn won one of the blue ribbons.

Boys enrolled in dairy, garden, handicraft, and poultry 4-H clubs.

Those in the dairy club met monthly with the Plymouth County 4-H Dairy Club while the handicraft club met regularly with a local leader. The county club leader met with the garden club members in the spring and visited each one during the summer to inspect the garden.

John Winters was selected as the Plymouth County handicraft delegate and as an award received a trip to Camp Farley.

Daniel Curley was selected as the Plymouth County News Writing delegate and he too attended Camp Farley.

Local leaders and 4-H club members of East Bridge-water in 1932 certainly maintained the standards set by the 4-H pioneers of 12 years ago.

Report of the Board of Selectmen

Your Board of Selectmen looking back over 1932 wishes to congratulate the different town departments for their co-operation in the past year which has been a very trying one.

We went into 1932 with a budget which was cut $45,000.00 below that of 1931; also with an additional burden of increased obligations over which we had no control amounting to some $29,000.00 for old age assistance, soldiers' relief, public welfare relief, and loss of revenue from State returns. The unemployment problem, which has brought about the falling off of payment of taxes, have meant that we have had to meet the town expenses with borrowed money.

This condition is no different than that of many other towns and cities throughout the Commonwealth, except that where some other towns and cities were obliged to omit pay-rolls from time to time through their inability to borrow money to meet these expenses, the Town of East Bridgewater has been able to market its notes. Your Board of Selectmen wishes to take this opportunity to publicly thank the East Bridgewater Saving Bank and the Bridgewater Trust Company for their cooperation which makes it possible for us to report to you that all bills rendered to the Town for 1932 have been paid.

Last year your Board of Selectmen requested a drastic cut in the budget and set the example by cutting the salaries of its own members $33\frac{1}{3}$ percent.

This year we recommend that the different department heads receiving compensation for their services as a part time job shall voluntarily reduce their pay.

We recommend the appointment of a Town Physician which would save the Town at least $2,000.00 a year.

We recommend the full co-operation of the departments employing labor, with the welfare department. Such co-operation could save the town at least another $2,000.00 a year.

We wish to discourage any and all articles in the warrant calling for the appropriation of any amounts over and above those which are absolutely necessary for the proper functioning of each department.

We feel that the Finance Committee will make certain recommendations to further reduce the budget this year. We suggest that the voters consider such recommendations as a step toward their own interests, and that they, the voters, will realize these recommendations have been made only after several conferences with the departments concerning their actual needs balanced against the amounts asked for.

We believe that 1933 will mark the beginning of the end of our present economic problem. We do not want to spoil a good record by failure to meet our obligations in 1933. To keep this record clean, to maintain our credit, we must continue to have the whole hearted co-operation not only of the departments but of the citizens themselves.

The citizens must remember that it is their business we are transacting, it is their money we are spending. We can do no better nor no worse than to follow the instructions of the voters at the annual town meeting.

MICHAEL F. ROACH,
ROBERT K. KEITH,
J. FRANK CURRIE,

Board of Selectmen.

Minority Report of the Board of Selectmen

Governments, like trees, begin to die at the top. I believe that it is at the top where we should look for the defects in our present economic system.

During our period of prosperity certain public service and public improvements were added to our budgets upon the recommendations of certain town officers. These extra services and improvements were paid for with money borrowed on notes issued over a period of years, adding to the permanent expense carried by the tax payers. The addition of new property for assessment purposes did not offset the increased budget, so a certain increase in valuation had to be made and an increase in the tax-rate was unavoidable.

Today with the business in our industrial plants almost at a stand still with many men out of work, each week brings added calls for assistance through our Board of Public Welfare and other charitable organizations. Under our present system of employment of town labor whereby a man can get work only two days in every five or six weeks, the situation becomes so acute that we find ourselves confronted with a problem that must be corrected by deliberate thought and direct action.

It is only proper that the citizens should look to their town officers for honest and conscientious advice. I do not believe the answer to the question is to cut labor which is not overpaid, nor to cut the salaries of our teachers which are low in comparison to those paid in other towns. But I do believe that a reasonable cut could be made in the budget by giving careful attention to administration. I believe that a substantial saving could be made by giving employment on town projects to able bodied men who, through no fault of their own, are obliged to seek relief through our Board of Public Welfare. I believe that consolidation of certain departments which would bring about the creation of a Public Works Department and the appointment of a superintendent of streets would solve our economic problem more successfully than anything else. I believe another aid in reducing the cost of our town government would be the discontinuance of similar and over-lapping departments, bringing them under one head.

These proposals have been turned down by an almost unanimous vote at our recent town meeting which leads me to believe that the majority of our citizens are sure that it is not necessary to give up any of the privileges and services they now enjoy, even for the sake of economy. Nothing could be further from the truth. Economy is nothing more nor less than self-denial.

As time goes on and expenses become harder to meet, I feel that the citizens will turn back to those proposals and will accept them either in whole or in part. Without some effort to cut expenses through administration there remains only cutting of salaries and department budgets. Many departments now are operating at a sacrifice to proper replacement, others may be cut a few hundred dollars.

It is doubtful if any cut than can be made will offset the loss in revenue from State returns on incomes and incorporation taxes, plus a loss in valuation estimated by the State tax department at $200,000.00.

I believe the time has arrived when we must take politics out of town government and remember for the time being at least, that the depression of the past few years has left its mark on all of us. If we are to hold what we have, to continue to maintain our credit and to pay our bills we must live within our ability to contribute to the public treasury.

J. FRANK CURRIE

Report of Highway Surveyor

To the Board of Selectmen and Citizens of East Bridge-water:

Owing to the necessity for economy in all departments, Highway appropriations for 1932 were the lowest since 1919.

During 1932 some permanent improvements were made in the way of drainage systems, guard rail, etc.

In the matter of street-oiling, it is possible that we may, with a narrow margin of safety, slightly reduce the appropriation for this year. This is in no sense an economy, merely a postponement.

A one and one-half ton Chevrolet truck was purchased in March and paid for before Jan. 1, 1933. This truck has worked every day, covered approximately 8,500 miles, and should be good for two years more of service.

The total amount available for highway maintainence from the 1932 appropriation was $16,300.00. The balance at the change of administration on March 12 was $12,700.00.

In view of the general unemployment it seemed only fair that work be given impartially to any and all citizens of the Town. During the period from March 1, 1932 to Jan. 1, 1933, one hundred and thirty-four different men were employed varying from eight to twenty-five weekly. The sum of $7,000.00 was available for labor during this period.

No appropriation was overdrawn and approximately $300.00 of the snow appropriation was turned back.

Personally, I wish to thank the Town Officials for their whole-hearted co-operation, and express my sincere appreciation to the citizens of the Town for the friendly spirit shown during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

ALMON C. ASHLEY,
Highway Surveyor.

Report of Board of Public Welfare

The department organized with Ezra S. Whitmarsh, Chairman and Ellen N. E. Moorhouse as Clerk.

Dr. Ivus I. Richmond who was a member of the Board for a number of years died on April 8th, 1932 and by a conference of the Selectmen and Department of Public Welfare the vacancy was filled by the appointment of M. Clifton Edson.

This has been one of the worst years ever experienced by the Board and we have tried to manage each case fairly to the individual. Three hundred and forty-three individuals have received aid. This is an increase of seventy-four over last year. One hundred and seventy-five have settlement in this Town, one hundred three in other towns, and sixty-five are State cases.

The Infirmary under Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grant as Warden and Matron has been well managed. We have had during the years as inmates an average number of seven and one-half.

Old Age Assistance which became effective July 1, 1931 is managed by the Board of Welfare, and at the present time have twenty-nine persons receiving assistance. A financial statement will be found in the Town Auditor's Report.

Report of the Superintendent of Schools

To the Board of Education of East Bridgewater—

Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is with pleasure that I respectfully present herewith my fifth annual report on the condition of the East Bridgewater public schools.

The past year was marked by a program of retrenchment and consolidation necessitated by the existing economic conditions and a reorganization of our school system from a 6-2-4 grading to a 6-3-3 grading, made imperative because of our inadequate housing facilities. When school closed in June, we had three classes housed in the town hall under conditions that were not eminently satisfactory. We were faced with the fact that a class had to be initiated for our children who were of a low intelligence quotient. This special class is compulsory under the statutes of Massachusetts, Chapter 71, Section 46, as amended 1922, Chapter 231, which reads:

“The School Committee of every town shall annually ascertain, under regulations prescribed by the department and the commissioner of mental diseases, the number of children three years or more retarded in mental development in attendance upon its public schools, or of school age and resident therein. At the beginning of each school year, the committee of every town where there are ten or more such children shall establish special classes for their instruction according to their mental attainments, under regulations prescribed by the department. No child under the control of the department of public welfare or of the child welfare division of the institutions department of the city of Boston who is three years or more retarded in mental development within the meaning of this section, shall, after complaint made by the school committee to the department of public welfare or said division, be placed in a town which is not required to maintain a special class as provided for in this section."

The budget for 1932 was $63,000.00, whereas the budget for 1931 was $74,400.00. This meant that some radical changes had to be made. The only solution to this problem was the adoption of a two-platoon system for the junior-senior high school, and the reorganization and consolidation referred to in the last paragraph. By adopting this two-platoon system, it was possible to cut the teaching costs in the senior high school from $15,200.00 to $8,900.00 per year. This discloses a net saving of $6,300.00 in this department. The teaching costs of the junior high school did not increase, yet by having the work fully departmentalized the present corps of junior high school teachers were able to absorb the freshman class of the senior high school. This meant that four classrooms in the Allen School building would be vacated, and the classes housed in the town hall could be moved to the Allen School. The first and second grades at the Allen School, which had always been housed in one room, a most unsatisfactory and distracting arrangement, could be separated and each grade housed in a separate room. The Allen School would now become a graded school capable of housing the first six grades. This made it possible for the pupils at the Eastville and Northville schools to be transferred to the Allen School and to be given the greater advantages which are bound to accrue to a youngster in a graded school system. The closing of these two buildings resulted in a very substantial saving, which is rendered here so as to clear up any misunderstanding which may exist in this matter:

Cost of teaching service	$2,500
Cost of janitors	486
Cost of fuel	210
Gross Saving	$3,196
Cost of transporting to the Allen School pupils formerly housed at Eastville and Northville (per year)	$800
Net Saving	$2,396

In order to protect the smaller pupils, namely, those in the first grade, from any hardship which might result from being away from home all day, the first grade pupils are transported back to their homes at 12.15 each day.

The course in domestic science and sewing at the senior high school was eliminated. This made it possible to cut $1,900.00 in the department of domestic arts.

The evening school which presented an opportunity for citizenship to many who had migrated to our shores and an opportunity for advanced education for boys and girls who had to leave school at an early age because of economic conditions, has been discontinued, and this means a saving of $600 a year.

The Commercial Department formerly handled by two teachers at a cost of $2,700.00 was consolidated so that one teacher could handle the various courses. This department now costs us $1,300.00, which displays a net saving of $1,400.00. The teachers who were retained at the high school have, without displeasure, assumed added duties. The superintendent of schools is teaching in addition to his regular duties. The cooperation on the part of all the school authorities has been the main factor in making this consolidation a success.

This elimination of courses and this replacement, relocation, and releasing of teachers was indeed not a pleasant task for the committee or the superintendent; but with the budget cut so drastically, there was no alternative.

The main items which I have enumerated here show a gross saving of $12,596.00. The increased cost of transportation made necessary by the two-platoon system amounts to $1,700.00, which, when deducted from the gross saving of $12,596.00, gives a net saving of $10,896.00. This amount represents the saving which will be effected during a full school year, and it will not show in the financial report of the school department until the end of the school term, August 31, 1933. It was possible for the school department to show a saving of only one-third of this amount during the year of 1932, because of the fact that this plan did not become effective until September 1st, 1932.

The two-platoon system was rather a natural solution to our difficulty, for the present. It is rather analogous to the man who owns a large manufacturing plant and whose business suddenly increases 100%. This manufacturer would indeed be extremely unwise if he would attempt to enlarge his facilities 100% to meet the emergency. In every business instead of enlarging the plant, under these conditions, the present plant is run on two shifts. We have simply tried to apply sound economic principles to the running of our schools. From the reports which I receive from the teachers in the junior and senior high schools, the two-platoon arrangement is quite satisfactory. We should not, however, plan to continue it in force indefinitely, but rather should make plans to provide proper facilities for housing at the first opportunity which presents itself after the passing of the great economic depression which clutches us now.

Three years ago the committee adopted the ruling relative to vaccination which stated that each child in school never having been successfully vaccinated must present a certificate of vaccination or exemption at the end of each two-month period. At the time that this regulation was voted we had in our schools over 100 pupils who never had presented a vaccination certificate. Since that time, through the efficient work of the school nurse and the cooperation of the principals and teachers, we have reduced the number of unvaccinated children enrolled in our schools to six. This year in order not to impose a hardship in the form of obtaining a certificate every two months on the parents of these six children, it was voted to require one vaccination certificate or certificate of exemption to be presented each year on the first day of school.

The statutes of Massachusetts relative to school attendance and the employment of children are full and explicit. Children between the ages of seven and sixteen years must attend school. In some cases, where there are extenuating circumstances, employment certificates may be granted to children between the ages of fourteen and sixteen years, at the discretion of the supervisor of attendance and superintendent of schools. In no instance is a child between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one permitted to work at any occupation without an employment certificate. The supervisor of attendance and superintendent would be spared much private detective work which is now a source of annoyance to them, and the employer would be spared the possibility of a fine under the statutes of our state if every child entering his employ brings with him his employment certificate, which may be obtained at the office of the superintendent of schools. This provision may in some cases seem to work a hardship, but it would appear that the legislature has so high a regard for the education of its future citizens that it considers it advisable to insist upon regular attendance at school until the age of sixteen even at the cost, in some instances, of working inconveniences upon some people. This is a most significant commentary upon the estimation in which Massachusetts holds the education afforded by its public schools.

The attendance for the year has been very good. Promptness, punctuality, and regularity have been stressed throughout the grades. Satisfactory work cannot be done by the pupil unless these three most important factors are emphasized and practiced. This emphasis should come from the parent as well as from the school department, for only by cooperation in this very vital matter can the proper results be attained. Much credit is due to the efficient services rendered by the supervisor of attendance for the excellent record he has made in following up cases which have been called to his attention.

The school exhibit, held last year in the Allen and High School buildings, exemplified to the parents and interested townspeople the high type of efficiency which is being maintained throughout the school system. We were very much pleased to welcome so many visitors to the various schools, but we want the townspeople to feel that they are welcome at any and all the schools whenever it is convenient for them to visit. This year we plan to hold another general school exhibit at which time the various teachers will be in their classrooms for conferences with the parents. It is our hope that the attendance this year will be greatly increased.

The teaching of thrift became compulsory in the public schools by the passage of a law in 1910 by the legislature. In order to further this idea and to permit the schools to practice their teachings in a most tangible manner, the legislature passed a law in 1911 authorizing savings banks to receive deposits from school children. We have been greatly assisted in this work by Mr. Charles Mann, treasurer of the Savings Bank, and his assistant, Mr. Ralph Snow. I have entered the record of savings in our school bank system in the school report this year because I feel that it is a credit to the pupils, teachers, and Mr. Mann.

School Year Ending June, 1932

Number of Schools Making Deposits	4
Enrollment	428
Percentage of Enrollment Participating	75
Average Number of Depositors Each Week	114
Deposits	$731.51
Net Savings	$689.04
Bank Balance as of June 30, 1932	$864.52
Average Net Saving per Depositor	$2.15

The figures given are taken from the Annual Report of School Savings compiled by the American Bankers Association, and it displays the fact that our schools are on the honor roll for schools in their enrollment class, having maintained a participating per cent of 75 or over.

In these days of economic strain, retrenchment, and consolidation, one hears much about the high costs of education. In the year 1932, the total cost of conducting the schools in East Bridgewater was $66,457.75. This represents the total amount of money raised from local taxation. We have received during the year $6,480.00 as reimbursement from the state on salaries paid teachers, $502.57 for tuition, making a total of $6,982.57. This makes the net cost of education to the taxpayers of East Bridgewater $59,475.18. When one considers that we had enrolled 844 pupils last year and that this year we will undoubtedly reach the record enrollment of 900 pupils, the per pupil cost for education in East Bridgewater is extremely low.

Few repairs have been made during the past year because of lack of funds. One of the portable buildings in the rear of the Allen School had to be made habitable in order to house the pupils of the special class. This was done at a minimum outlay of money. By transferring the stoves from the Eastville and Northville schools, we saved the inevitable expenditure of a considerable sum for heating apparatus in the Beaver School. Minor repairs and adjustments to stairways, heating, and sanitary equipment were made throughout the year. If we are to continue using the district schools for any period of time, the walls and ceilings of the different rooms should be tinted, the sanitary facilities should be made modern, electric lights should be installed, and some of the old, obsolete furniture should be replaced.

I cannot close this report without offering a word of commendation for the marvelous spirit displayed by my co-workers, the teachers, who have carried on so nobly under extremely trying conditions. In many cases the pupil load has been increased; in many cases the class-period hours have been increased; in all cases more and arduous duties have been added to an already full schedule.

Respectfully submitted,

December 31, 1932

JAMES G. REARDAN,
Superintendent of Schools.

CLASS ODE

THE RIVER OF LIFE

Our school life has been like a river
Flowing along through the years,
Passing by meadows of pleasure
And into the woodlands of fears.

Each brooklet and stream from the mountains,
Spilling into our life as we go,
Will strengthen and help in o'ercoming
The tangling weeds that grow.

To the ocean of life we are moving,
Searching for wisdom and truth,
So may we forever remember,
The inspiring school of our youth.

Special Town Meeting

JANUARY 30, 1933

Pursuant to a Warrant signed by the Selectmen on January 17, 1933, duly posted and the constable's return thereon a Special Town Meeting was held at the Town Hall on January 30, 1933. The following action was taken.

Article 4. To see what action, if any, the town will take with reference to consolidation of any or all the Departments of the town, and to secure authority therefor by appropriate legislation.

It was moved that the Town vote to consolidate the Water Department, the Highway Department, the Tree Department and the Sewer Department, thus creating a Public Works Department. That the Selectmen act as the Board of Public Welfare; that the Selectmen appoint a Town Accountant with the approval of the State Director of Accounts; that the Board of Selectmen be instructed to contact the Great and General Court immediately for any special legislation necessary to make this consolidation effective before March 6, 1933; that the Board of Selectmen call a special Town Meeting, at least 30 days before the Annual Town Meeting 1934, to give an account of the cost of administration under the system of consolidation as compared with the average cost for the past 2 years of the separate department administrative system.

Vote taken by show of hands: Yes 40, No 214.

Motion declared not carried.

Article 1. To see if the Town will vote to consolidate the Water Department, the Highway Department, the Tree Department and Sewer Department to create a Department of Public Works.

No action taken under this article.

Article 2. To see if the Town will vote to have the Selectmen act as the Board of Public Welfare.

No action taken under this article.

Article 3. To see if the Town will vote to have the Selectmen appoint a Superintendent of Streets.

No action taken.

Article 5. To see if the Town will vote to purchase the J. Ralph Baker place to be used for a Town Infirmary. Price not to exceed $4,500.00.

No action taken.

No action taken on this article.

Article 22. To see if the Town will vote to instruct the Board of Water Commissioners to discontinue the contract system of maintenance in the water department and instruct the Board of Water Commissioners to establish a water department to be conducted under the direction and control of said Board and to set a date when the establishment shall become operative.

Voted, that it is the sense of this meeting that the voters in Town Meeting assembled hereby formally notify the Board of Water Commissioners that in the opinion of the voters it is advisable to discontinue the so-called contract system of maintenance and express the opinion that said Board should within thirty days from this date set up in operation a water department, wherein the board should employ directly, all necessary help required in such operation and provide such quarters and equipment as may be necessary, and such instructions are hereby given to said board.

Yes, 157; No, 55. Motion declared passed.

Article 23. To see if the Town will vote to repeal Section 1, Article 1, of the Town By-Laws and substitute therefor the following section, so as to read as follows: Section 1—The annual Town Meeting for the transaction of town business shall be held on the first Monday of February in each year and the annual election of Town Officers shall be held on the Saturday following the first Monday of February in each year. Any adjournment of the business session when voted, must set a date for the adjourned session not later than seven days after the date of adjournment.

Moved, that the Town vote to amend the Town By-Laws by striking out Section 1 of Article 1, and substitute therefor the following section, so as to read as follows: Section 1. The Annual Town Meeting for transaction of Town Business shall be held on the first Monday of February in each year, and the annual election of officers shall be held on the Saturday following the first Monday in February in each year. Any adjournment of the business session when voted, must set a date for the adjourned session not later than seven days after the date of adjournment.

Yes, 43; No, 147. Motion declared not passed.

Article 24. To see if the Town will vote to endorse and recommend in principle the collection of taxes by the installment plan and urge taxpayers to avail themselves of this plan and instruct the collector that in the opinion of the citizens, arrangements should be made for the collection of installments of such size as may be offered by the tax payer when they equal or exceed ten per cent. of the total tax bill of said tax payer.

Voted, that the Town endorse in principle, the collection of taxes by the installment plan and urge taxpayers to avail themselves of this plan and instruct the collector that in the opinion of the citizens, arrangements should be made for the collection of installments of such size as may be offered by the tax payer when they equal or exceed ten per cent. of the total tax bill, and that the Town Clerk is instructed to forward a copy of this bill to the Great and General Court and the Tax Collector is instructed to notify the Representative from this district and the Senator from this district of the action taken under this article. A unanimous vote.

Article 25. To see if the Town will vote to instruct the Board of Public Welfare to appoint a Town Physician or Physicians, at a total cost not to exceed $1,000.00 and to define the duties.

Voted, that the Board of Public Welfare be and hereby is instructed to hire a Town Physician or Physicians, to define their duties and determine the salary or salaries at a total cost not to exceed one thousand dollars a year. A unanimous vote.

Article 26. To see if the Town will vote to authorize the Town Auditor to transfer such sums of money as may be received from dog licenses from the County Treasurer to the Public Library account.

Voted, to authorize the Town Auditor to transfer such sums of money as may be received from dog licenses from the County Treasurer to the Public Library account, to be divided as follows: to the salary account, the sum of six hundred dollars; to the book-binding account, the sum of fifty-three dollars and eighty-four cents. A unanimous vote.

Article 27. To see if the Town will vote to accept the devise to it, contained in the fourth clause of the Will of Allan B. Shaw, late of East Bridgewater, deceased, of the "H. Gurney Lot", so called, containing fifty-one (51) acres, more or less, and situated off Bedford Street, in said East Bridgewater, near the Whitman-East Bridgewater Town line, for the purpose of using and improving said lot as a Town Forest, or take any other action with respect thereto.

Voted, that the Town vote to accept a lot of land devised to it under the will of the late Allan B. Shaw, said devise contained in the fourth clause, the "H. Gurney Lot", so called, containing fifty-one acres, more or less, and situated off Bedford street in said East Bridgewater, near the Whitman-East Bridgewater town line, but defer any improvements until conditions warrant. A unanimous vote.

Article 28. To see if the Town will vote to raise the sum of $12,000.00, same to be applied to overdrafts of the following departments: Schools, $3,500.00; Old Age Assistance, $600.00; Public Welfare, $8,500.00.

Action taken in budget under Article 3.

Article 29. To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate a sum of money, not to exceed $5,000.00, to furnish employment to citizens of East Bridgewater who are entitled to aid from the Department of Public Welfare. This appropriation to be expended under the direction of the Chairman of the Department of Public Welfare and Board of Selectmen, co-operating with heads of other departments, or by such other committees as the Town may select. Rate of wages paid from this appropriation to be determined by vote of the Town.

ABSTRACT FROM CHAPTER 99 OF THE REVISED LAWS OF MASSACHUSETTS

Sec. 3. Physicians and midwives shall, within forty-eight hours after the birth of every child in cases of which they were in charge, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a notice stating the date and place of the birth, giving the street number if any, color and the family name. They shall within fifteen days after the birth, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a report of the birth, stating the date and place, the name, if any, of the child, its sex and color, and the names, ages, places of birth, occupations and residences of the parents, giving the street number, if there be any, and the number of the ward in a city, the maiden name of the mother, if the full return is not made within the forty-eight hours.

The fee of the physician or midwife shall be twenty-five cents for each birth so reported. A physician or midwife who neglects to report each birth within forty-eight hours or fifteen days thereafter, shall for each offence forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 6. Parents, within forty days after the birth of a child, and every householder within forty days after a birth in his house, shall cause notice thereof to be given to the clerk of the city or town in which child is born.

The facts required for record, as stated in section 3, shall, so far as known or obtainable, be included in every notice given under the provision of this section.

Sec. 8. A parent, or other persons who, by Section 6, is required to give, or cause to be given, notice of a birth or death, who neglects to do so for ten days after the time limited therefor, shall forfeit not more than five dollars for each offence.

Sec. 24. The Town Clerk will furnish blanks for returns of births to parents, householders, physicians and midwives who apply therefor.

Due to the very small appropriation of $2,800.00 I have had to perform about 95 percent of the police work which has kept me on duty twenty-four hours a day, using available officers only when absolutely necessary. We have been very fortunate the past year and have had very little serious crime, more especially in the three business districts. The owners of property who pay taxes have a right to expect protection of their property at all times and I have made every effort to give them this protection. That this service is appreciated is best manifested by verbal and written commendations received from voters. Our all night harvest and poultry patrol that was formed several years ago is still in operation during the fall months and is much appreciated in the outlying districts.

According to statistics there were 30,000 fatalities in the United States during 1933 on our streets and highways caused by carelessness and excessive speed; also from recklessness and defective equipment. I have been very rigid in enforcing these particular offences and we all have been rewarded by having no fatalities for the past twenty-four months, and I appreciate the help I have received from our local Safety Committee and other law abiding citizens.

In 1933 the Brockton Office of the M. S. P. C. C. dealt with 14 families in East Bridgewater, having a total of 44 children. 12 of these children were protected by action in Court, instituted by myself in co-operation with the Agents of the Brockton District, Harold L. Pickett and Helen A. Johnson. Four of these children were placed in the care and custody of the Commonwealth. Four adults were prosecuted for offences involving children, or causing moral or physical suffering. One adult was given a suspended sentence and one adult was sent to the Reformatory for Women.

In the protection of these 44 children in the Town of East Bridgewater, in 1933, there were elements of cruelty or wrong doing toward them on the part of parents or other adults as follows: Offense against young girls, 1. Delinquency, 2. Desertion, 3. Divorce, 2. Feeble-mindedness, 4. Forced marriage, 2.

Illegitimacy, 4. Intemperance, 3. Medical neglect, 1. Moral neglect, 3. Non-support, 2. Physical cruelty, 4. Physical neglect, 4. Separation of parents, 4.

The cost of the work of the Society was borne in part by the generous contributions of friends of the Society in East Bridgewater to the amount of $53. This was remitted by the Treasurer of the East Bridgewater Committee of the M. S. P. C. C. to the Treasurer of the Brockton District, in December, 1933.

The East Bridgewater Town Committee of the M. S. P. C. C. was organized during 1933, and its membership is as follows:

James G. Reardan, Chairman; Chief Everett F. Russell, Secretary; Rev. Carl G. Horst, Treasurer; Dr. Walter B. Bannerman, Dr. Alton L. Hurlburt, Dr. John C. Angley, Mrs. George Chandler, Mrs. Ina M. Curley, Mrs. Beatrice C. Hall, Mrs. Edward Hobart and Mrs. Michael F. Roach.

I would recommend the present 1931 Chevrolet coach, mileage about 50,000, be replaced by a new machine in the interest of economy and safety. It is the only emergency vehicle in town that is not new. I claim it is wasting the tax payers' money to repair emergency cars, as such vehicles could be traded in each year for less money than repairs cost.

In conclusion may I be permitted to say that an honest and sincere effort has been made to render efficient service in a fair and impartial manner.

Respectfully submitted,

EVERETT F. RUSSELL,

Chief of Police.

January 1, 1934.

Report of the Tree Warden

To the Board of Selectmen and Citizens of East Bridgewater:

During 1933, through the Special Fund, I was able to do considerable work in this department, trimming trees on Oak Street, Franklin Street, Central Street, from Franklin Street to Washington Street, Pond Street, Belmont Street, Spring Street, and a section of Plymouth Street, and Summer Street.

During the period from March 14, 1933 to January 1, 1934, thirty-two different men were employed averaging twelve weekly.

I sincerely appreciate the co-operation of the Town Officials and the freindly spirit shown by the townspeople during my first year in office.

Respectfully submitted,

CECIL W. HOYT,
Tree Warden.

Report of the Moth Superintendent

To the Board of Selectmen and the Citizens of East Bridgewater:

For the past three years there has been a general increase of Gypsy Moths and Elm Leaf Beetle in this town. With the cooperation of the State we hope in the near future to decrease the amount of these pests.

Through this department much has been done to provide work for the unemployed.

I, personally, want to thank the Town Officials and citizens of East Bridgewater for their cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

CECIL W. HOYT,
Moth Superintendent.

Librarian's Report

To the Board of Trustees of the Public Library:

I present herewith the annual report of the year ending December 31, 1933.

CIRCUCLATION AND REGISTRATION

During 1933 the Public Library circulated 54,061 volumes, which represent a gain over last year's circulation. This is encouraging in view of the fact that the library was closed for twenty-one days during a scarlet fever epidemic. The effect of unemployment on the use of the library is plainly shown by the increased per capita circulation during the past three years, which has advanced from 9.71 to 15.05 volumes.

The large circulation, together with the heavy loss of books through contact with scarlet fever cases, makes it exceedingly difficult for readers to obtain desired books. Often a book is so worn that it has to be rebound, and, unfortunately, sometimes discarded before all requests for it have been supplied. Two and three copies of the more popular titles should be bought to prevent these long waiting lists, but so long as the town continues to make no appropriation for the purchase of books, this is an impossibility.

The registration statistics show that the total number of registered borrowers is 1897, indicating that 55 per cent of the population are library patrons. This shows a net gain of 297 registrations over the total for 1932.

A new registration was started in 1929. Since then, constant revision has been made in order to eliminate all cards of persons who are no longer borrowers.

CHILDREN'S WORK

On March 18, 177 books were circulated from the children's room. This was the largest circulation in a single day since the experiment of a children's room was begun four years ago. Last year 11,170 juvenile books were circulated, which fact definitely proves that the children's department is now so firmly established that it may be considered to have passed from the status of an experiment to that of a necessity.

Great interest was shown by grade pupils in the reading for state certificates. 131 certificates were awarded after the oral book reviews were given. A Vacation club was formed during the summer, and 15 children took a book tour around the world.

Since there is no library in the East Bridgewater schools, the public library serves the teachers and pupils in both the capacity of a school library and a public library. Monthly deposits of books are taken out by teachers of the lower grades, and daily reference work is done in the library by pupils of the higher grades. In order to be an even more efficient part of the educational system of the town, a separate children's room should be built so that the small room now used as a children's room could be used for high school reference.

ACTIVITIES

The Mothers' Club and the Woman's Club used the library for special meetings.

121 books were discarded because of scarlet fever contact.

The cataloging of the books left to the library under the will of the late John W. Herrick was completed.

204 books were borrowed through Inter-Library loan.

Three Italian and three Portugese libraries were used during the year.

Special exhibits were held during Book Week in November. Miss Mary Beals delightfully entertained the children for four afternoons during the week with story telling.

The librarian attended meetings of the Massachusetts Library Club, the Library Institute at Hyannis, and the Old Colony Library Club. The assistants attended a meeting of the Old Colony Library Club.

GIFTS

Under the will of the late Allan B. Shaw, a miscellaneous collection of books was bequeathed to the library.

Miss Maud Magoun presented valuable Civil War relics to the library, and Mr. George A. Burrell added an early volume of the Book of Psalms to our collection of rare books.

Three patrons, realizing the great need for books by the library, generously donated 32 books. It is their wish that their names be withheld from publication.

We acknowledge with thanks these gifts together with gifts of books and magazines from Mrs. Charles Seaver, Mrs. Frank E. Houghton, Miss Maria Nutter, and Mr. Alfred B. Parker.

In conclusion I would express appreciation for the prompt and efficient help of the assistants, and to the Trustees for their continued cooperation and support.

Report of the Highway Surveyor

To the Board of Selectmen and Citizens of East Bridge-water:

Continuing the program of economy, Highway appropriations for 1933, in common with other departments, were materially less than for 1932, the total amount available for highway work being $12,400.00 as against $16,300.00 for 1932.

In view of continued unemployment, work done under highway appropriations was distributed so far as possible among those who made application.

The appropriation for Unemployment Relief has aided materially in highway work, from fifteen to twenty men weekly having worked under this fund from March 15 to December 1, 1933. Work was started December 1, 1933 on two C. W. A. projects employing 45 men. At present, Jan. 20, 130 men are employed on these projects; namely, Harvard, Bridge and Union Streets.

All surfaced roads are in reasonably good condition. So far as was possible with available funds permanent improvements in drainage were effected.

Thanking the Town Officials and citizens for their cooperation during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

ALMON C. ASHLEY,
Highway Surveyor.

Report of Board of Public Welfare

The Department organized with Ezra S. Whitmarsh as Chairman, and Ellen N. E. Moorhouse as Clerk.

This has been a very trying year and have aided 592 persons. Of these, 288 were persons having settlement in this Town, 111 State, 167 Other Towns, and 26 Mothers' Aid.

On account of the C. W. A., many persons obtaining employment, there was a reduction of 340 persons—leaving us on Jan. 1, 1934, 252 persons.

The infirmary was burned Thursday night, January 12, 1933. We found it difficult to place the various inmates; but finally placed them in the Middleboro Infirmary, through the courtesy of the Board of Public Welfare, and two were boarded in private families. On the night of the fire we had a telephone message from Brockton offering assistance, and four inmates were cared for temporarily, for which we thank them.

We rented a place for Mr. and Mrs. Grant so that he could take care of the farm, and two inmates have been living with him—one a boarder and one settled.

We strongly recommend the rebuilding of the Infirmary, believing it to be for the best interest of the Town.

Old Age Assistance, which became effective July 1, 1931, is managed by the Board of Welfare and at the present time we have 26 cases with 4 applications pending.

Report of Board of Fire Engineers

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

In submitting the report of the Board of Fire Engineers, we wish to submit the report of expenditures of the Fire Department in two parts, the first part to be of the expenditures from January 1, 1933 to May 1, 1933. We do this because of the fact that your present Board of Engineers took over the Fire Department on May 1, 1933 and are responsible for the cost of the department only from May 1, 1933 to December 31, 1933:

Expenses from January 1, 1933 to May 1, 1933.

Payrolls	$1,060.50
Janitor	273.90
Gas and oil	56.11
Supplies	13.14
Fuel	143.23
Light	23.64
Repairs	7.60
Telephone	79.10
Insurance	148.28
Equipment	443.37
Gas	7.66
	<hr/>	$2,256.59

You will see that out of an appropriation of $3,000.00, $2,256.59 had been expended during the first four months of the year, leaving a balance of $743.41 to carry on the department for the remaining eight months of the year. Of course it was impossible for your Board of Engineers to keep within that amount and still give to the citizens of the town proper fire protection.

We herewith present our expenditures from May 1, 1933 to December 31, 1933, which show an overdraft of $930.14 for the calendar year.

Expenses from May 1, 1933 to December 31, 1933.

Payrolls	$1,187.85
Janitor	26.00
Gas and oil	54.78
Supplies	17.65
Fuel	100.00
Light	29.28
Repairs	.70
Telephone	109.25
Insurance	5.00
Equipment	138.24
Gas	5.80
	<hr/>	$1,673.55

Out of this amount the salaries of the firemen of the two companies were paid for the calendar year, a total amount of $375.00.

From May 14, 1933 to December 31, 1933 the Fire Department has responded to 27 alarms, 11 district and 16 still alarms.

We have issued :

- 6 garage permits
- 3 permits to install tanks for fuel oil
- 235 permits for the use of range oil
- 7 permits for the sale of fire-works
- 3 permits for the use of dynamite.

At the Central Station there is a Maxim triple combination truck of 750 gallon capacity.

At the Elmwood station there is one International Chemical combination truck and one Hook and Ladder under repair.

The department has 2,800 feet of double jacket rubber lined cotton jacket hose 2½ inches in diameter.

Respectfully submitted,

BOARD OF FIRE ENGINEERS,

Frank M. Skuse, Chief Eng.

Fred F. Smith

Maurice F. Hennessey, Clerk.

Report of the Board of Selectmen

Your Board of Selectmen, in submitting their report, must of necessity call your attention to some of the expenditures of 1932 which had considerable bearing on the tax rate of 1933.

The total appropriation of 1932 was $213,483.94. Of this amount $12,600.00 was appropriated against the 1933 tax levy, or, in other words, $12,600.00 was added to the 1933 appropriation in order to complete the payment of 1932 expenditures. This brought the total appropriation of 1933 up to $209,891.41. Only for the fact that all school teachers and town officers made a voluntary contribution of 10% of their salaries, and that by action of the voters at the annual town meeting all other salaries and wages were reduced 10%, your 1933 appropriation would have exceeded that of 1932.

Your Board of Selectmen are pleased to report that all bills and charges were paid and that they have been able to keep the total expenditures for 1933 below the total appropriation for 1933. Several factors contributed to this end.

Although some departments exceeded their appropriations, there were enough unexpended balances in other departments to make possible a transfer of funds to balance all department expenditures.

Many economies were put into effect which helped materially to keep our expenses within the appropriation. The free telephone privileges given to town officers were cancelled, the only telephones in private homes now being paid for by the tax-payers are those used by the Fire Engineers and Police Department.

As early as May 1, 1933, we found that several departments were spending in excess of any reasonable hope of keeping within their appropriations, so the Board of Selectmen took away from all departments under their jurisdiction the right to purchase materials and equipment without an order from the Board of Selectmen. This action brought about the resignation of two of our Fire Engineers. In view of the fact that the Fire Department had spent two-thirds of its appropriation in one-third of the year, the Board of Selectmen accepted these resignations and appointed a new Board of Fire Engineers. At this time the Fire Department had a balance of less than $800.00 with which to conduct their department for two-thirds of the year—from May 1 to December 31, 1933. With such a small balance it was necessary for this department to over-draft in order to meet regular expenses. To help reduce expenses in this department the Board of Selectmen combined the Forest Fire Department with the Fire Department, bringing them both under one roof. The old Model T Ford that had been used as a fire truck at the Elmwood Station was turned over to the use of fighting forest fires, thereby saving the previous charge of $5.00 per hour for truck hire at forest fires. By this economy of organization the cost of fire protection was $500.00 less in 1933 than it had been in 1932.

The cost of the Police Department was reduced from $3,600.00 in 1932 to $3,100.00 in 1933.

In making your appropriations at the annual town meeting this year, we call your attention to the fact that, through the loss of valuation, (about $60,000.00 in 1933) and through the loss of State returns (about $17,000.00 in 1933) your borrowing capacity for 1934 has been reduced to $192,000.00 as against $200,224.71 in 1933.

Your Board of Selectmen approved the borrowing on temporary loans of $175,000.00 in 1933 against $208,000.00 in 1932. This reduction in borrowing on temporary loans has left the town with a balance of credit of more than $25,000.00, the first time since 1930 that such a large balance of credit has been available.

A few years ago it was comparatively easy to borrow money to finance town business. Today the situation is entirely changed as there are very few markets for anticipation of revenue loans. Had it not been for the able assistance given by Mr. Charles F. Mann, in placing loans for the town, there is no question that our town would have failed to meet some of its pay-rolls. The Board of Selectmen wish to take this opportunity to publicly thank Mr. Mann for his cooperation in helping the town to market its anticipation of revenue notes.

Another contributing factor to lowered expenses in 1933 was the help provided by Federal Government gratuities, such as coal, foodstuffs, etc., the return to the town of one-third of its Public Welfare expenditures and the allotment of monies for C. W. A. projects. The C. W. A. allotments were based upon population and Public Welfare expenditures. On this basis, East Bridgewater was allowed $8,771.00, only enough money with material costs to work seventy-four men from November 16, 1933 to February 15, 1934. Our enrollment of unemployed reached nearly four hundred, so in order to re-employ all our registered men, it was necessary to find new projects outside our original allotment. In order to do this, your Board of Selectmen sponsored the clearing of our rivers and streams. Colonel P. M. Churchill, State Reclamation Engineer, gave us plans, maps, estimates of costs and the number of men necessary. With this correct data we were able to present this project properly to the State Administration of C. W. A., who allotted the town $16,-080.00 for this project which has given employment to one hundred and five men until February 15, 1934. We still needed other projects to re-employ all registered men, so the Board of Selectmen induced the County Commissioners to re-gravel Bridge and Union Streets. This project gave employment to eighty men. The town forest project employed eight men, Harvard and Pine Streets project employed twenty-nine men, Dean and Keith Place project employed fourteen men and sixty-three men were placed on a State project in Bridgewater. Several more men were placed on other State projects until the total number of re-employed men reach three hundred and sixty-one. All able-bodied unemployed men registered were put to work with the exception of twenty-eight tradesmen who did not accept such employment as we had to offer. The Board of Selectmen wish to publicly thank Mr. James H. Feeney, local National Re-employment Manager and Miss Katherine Kenneally, his clerk, for the efficient and impartial manner in which they so speedily and properly placed all the men re-employed. We are indebted also to Lester R. Fisher, our town auditor, who audited all the figures for our projects before we presented them for approval. We wish to thank Almon C. Ashley, our Highway Surveyor, for his cooperation in furnishing us with the costs of materials, man-hours and estimates of costs on our local highway projects. We wish to thank also, Mr. E. S. Whitmarsh, local Federal Administrator and his clerk Miss Harriet Sturtevant, also Mr. Michael J. McCarthy, Town Clerk, and Mr. John L. Keith, local Federal Disbursing Officer, for their cooperation and for the unselfish manner in which they have given their time and energy toward making this re-employment enterprise such a success. All these projects together have brought to East Bridge-water a weekly payroll of more than $4,000.00.

During the past year, several citizens have contacted members of the Board of Selectmen both individually and in their regular meetings, to request the Board of Selectmen to abate taxes or give an extension of time for payment of taxes. We wish to call the attention of the citizens to the fact that the Board of Selectmen have absolutely no authority in the collection or abatements of taxes. Sole authority for the collection of taxes is vested in the office of Tax Collector, and the sole authority for abatements is vested in the office of the Board of Assessors, or upon their recommendation.

In closing, the Board of Selectmen wish to thank each Town Officer and each member of all committees, who have so willingly cooperated with us in our efforts to conduct the affairs of the town in a creditable manner during the year 1933.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED AT THE ANNUAL TOWN MEETING, MARCH 4, 1933

Comprising the Board of Public Welfare and Board of Selectmen to Rebuild the Town Infirmary.

Certain preliminary work had been done by the committee comprising these two boards, prior to its appointment in March.

The first meeting of the committee was held February 9, 1933 and was organized with E. S. Whitmarsh as chairman and Ellen N. Moorhouse as clerk. Discussion of the type of building required was taken up by the committee and it was agreed that the services of one or more architect would be necessary, and plans be made for the reconstruction at a cost not to exceed $3,700.00 which was the amount of insurance paid the town for fire loss.

On February 14, 1933 the committee met at the town infirmary with the following architects: Ralph Jackson of Brockton, Faulk of Brockton, Stephens of East Bridgewater, Creedker of Newton and W. Jackson of Brockton. They went thoroughly over the building and were asked to submit plans for its reconstruction.

Plan No. 1, calling for an expenditure of $2,500.00 was agreed by the Committee, presented by Ralph Jackson, but same was rejected by the State Department.

The next meeting of the committee was on February 28, 1933 when plans were submitted by the following architects: Ralph Jackson, Faulk, Stephens and Creedker. These plans were submitted to Mr. Bradwell, supervisor of State and Town Infirmaries, for his approval. The plans of Mr. Stephens and Mr. Faulk were rejected. Mr. Bradwell would accept either of the plans of Ralph Jackson of Brockton or Creedker of Newton, with minor changes. Both of these plans called for an expenditure of $3,500.00. The changes requested were made and the plans were re-submitted to Mr. Cary and Mr. Bradwell of the State Department, and by a vote of the committee, the plan of Mr. Ralph Jackson of Brockton was accepted. Mr. Arthur Churchill was chosen as foreman of construction.

Your committee submitted bids for material and the Ryder Grain Company of East Bridgewater, being the lowest bidder, was given the opportunity of furnishing material for construction.

After beginning construction, inspection of procedure came under the department of Public Safety and a building inspector was continually looking over the progress of the building. Several changes which were not allowed for by the architect were demanded of the town by this inspector, adding materially to the cost of construction.

By a vote of the town, all labor furnished on this job must be obtained from local citizens. This meant the introduction of a stagger system of carpenters and brought a new crew on the job every six days, which of course, added to the cost of construction.

The estimated cost of completing the Infirmary at the present time is $4,000.00. The following material is on hand, and in so far as the committee is aware, all bills and charges have been paid:

1,200 feet flooring	$72.00
1,800 feet quarter round	13.50
14 thresholds	2.80
300 feet for finish	18.00
Brick	20.00
Rough spruce	15.00
100 lbs. nails	5.00
6 prs. butts	1.20
17 window sashes	1.70
Box of 12x10 screws	.30
	$149.50
Bath room fixtures	220.95
	$370.45

OF THE

Plymouth County Extension Service

The rapidly changing economic conditions of the past year have created many pressing problems for farmers of the county. The Extension Service has been called upon more frequently than ever before to furnish information and advice that the farms of the county might be operated as efficiently as possible, that families might use their resources to the best advantage and that boys and girls might learn through their 4-H clubs to assist in meeting the problems of their parents.

Through county-wide and local meetings, tours and demonstrations, through circular and personal letters, farm and home visits, office and telephone calls, and through such other agencies as the "Farmer" and newspaper articles, information, instruction and advice have been made available to farmers of all classes, to the homemakers of the county and to 4-H club members. Over 3000 farmers and in all nearly 7500 different individuals in Plymouth County have been in direct contact with the Extension Service during the past year.

Marketing problems and those of farm finance have been even more pressing than those of production. The Extension Service has devoted much time and effort toward the solution of these difficulties, both with individual farmers and with county-wide groups of dairymen, poultrymen and others.

The following report tells briefly some of the ways in which the work affected the citizens of East Bridgewater.

Speakers were provided for both county-wide dairy meetings and for meetings of the Satucket Herd Improvement Association during the year. A total of 72 personal visits were paid by the agricultural agent to farmers in town in order to give information or advice affecting their business. The farmers of the town have attended regularly the county-wide meetings and tours held by the Extension Service and many have secured additional advice through telephone calls, personal letters or calls at the office in Brockton. In addition, all farmers in town received regularly, letters and bulletins giving timely information on the control of pests, growing of crops, and management of poultry and livestock.

As usual, the town has participated to a very large extent in the home program. Two organized groups under competent local leadership held series of meetings and did outstanding work in the renovation and making over of coats, dresses, and other garments. In cooperation with the garden club, a home grounds improvement group was organized and four meetings held with an attendance of about fifty people. Our annual Home Makers' Day was again held in East Bridgewater. Groups are now being organized in Child Development and in Home Furnishing.

100 boys and 142 girls enrolled in the following 4-H clubs during the past year—garden, handicraft, poultry, clothing, food, lunch box, home crafts, room improvement, and canning.

The East Bridgewater Grange appointed a committee to visit the garden club members and score their gardens.

This committee did a good job and is to be congratulated on the work that it did.

Allan Fuller, representative of the Plymouth County Handicraft club members, and Ernest Saccoccia, representing the Garden club members, attended the State 4-H Club Camp at the State College in Amherst.

Several members also attended Camp Farley, the 4-H camp for club members in southeastern Massachusetts.

The 4-H girls and boys continued to do high standard work under the fine leadership of their local leaders. One of the best exhibits which the clubs have had was held in the high school gymnasium in the spring.

The first and second prizes in the county-wide room improvement contest were won by Evelyn Smith and Evelyn Stickney. Both girls made many interesting improvements in their rooms by thinking and planning. They had to think and plan too, because only what they did for $2.00 or less was considered by the judges.

The success of 4-H club work in East Bridgewater is due to a large extent to the excellent leadership work of their local leaders. The girls and boys are fortunate in having these fine people who are interested in them and their work.

Report of the Superintendent of Schools

To the Board of Education of East Bridgewater:

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my annual report for the year ending December 31, 1933.

It is generally recognized that the past year has proved most trying and difficult for school systems throughout the country. In reporting upon the schools of East Bridgewater, however, it is gratifying to state that up to the present time no serious curtailment of the educational program has been effected. This has been due to the fact that all of our teachers have assumed additional pupil-loads and class periods. This business depression calls for all reasonable economy, but nothing should be done which will forever deprive the present generation of their rightful heritage. At no time has there been a greater need for the influence of education upon our future citizens, and it is a great mistake to weaken in any manner the services of our educational institutions. The support which should be given to our schools is admirably set forth in the article by Ex-Governor Smith, in the Boston Globe of January 17, 1932:

“The services of our educational institutions should be strengthened, no matter what the drain may be. Let the watchword be, therefore—not only will we not permit them to fall back in their educational services, but we will, in spite of demands upon us, do what we humanly can to improve them."

The housing of our pupils leaves much to be desired. The town is urged to make some arrangements for adequate school accommodations as soon as it is possible to do so. This could be done in one of three ways:

(1) the erection of a large building for grades 1 - 6, an addition to the high school for grades 7 - 12, and the closing of the district schools;

(2) the building of a grade school for grades 1 - 6, the use of the Allen School for grades 7 and 8, and an addition to the High School for grades 9 - 12.

(3) or the addition to the High School to accommodate the upper six grades and the continued use of the Allen and the district schools.

The attendance for the year has been far below the average of other years due to the fact that we have had to close our schools on two occasions for scarlet fever and fear that prevails about this dangerous disease. I would advise the acceptance of the offer made by the State Department of Health to immunize our children with the scarlet fever toxoid, and recommend that this work of innoculation be undertaken at once.

The books and supplies incidental to instruction have been insufficient. Nothing has changed more rapidly in the field of education in the past few years than text books, especially for the elementary grades. A good text book requires that the subject matter be thoroughly up-to-date and that it be presented according to the principles of sound pedagogy. Attractiveness, paper, print, illustrations, and binding are all important considerations in making a selection. We should replace all text books which are obsolete and those that have had four or five years of continuous service. Overworked books are dangerous to health. In this respect let me quote Commissioner of Education George F. Zook of Washington:

“The average life of a text book is three years. When it is used longer than that it becomes a sorry mess. Lots of times some of the pages are missing and that makes it tough on student and teacher alike. They're dirty and grimy and covered with germs, no fit things for small hands to use. The depressions at fault. School boards are making their text books last longer than they should.”

The teaching personnel is the same as last year with one exception. Miss Lennon resigned to accept a similar position in the Brockton schools. Miss Lennon was an excellent teacher, inspiring her pupils with a love for their work and imbuing them with a spirit of enthusiasm. Her work is being carried on by Miss Bryant, a graduate of Massachusetts College of Art. Miss Bryant has generously offered her services for the experience to be gained. This type of service should not be continued. We should elect a teacher to this position and to the other positions which have been filled by cadet or training teachers. There is dire need of another teacher in the Allen School, in the Junior High School, and in the Senior High School respectively.

Miss Odabashian was transferred to the Elmwood School, Miss Swift to the West School, and Miss Giles to the Junior High School. All of these changes have proven eminently satisfactory.

Teachers' meetings have been discontinued because of the afternoon session of the Junior High School. The objectives formerly accomplished are gained by personal interview and small group conferences. A course on Health was given under the direction of the Plymouth County Health Association for teachers and parents.

The only repairs made during the year were those of an absolutely necessary nature. The roof and stacks at the High School were repaired. The stacks at the Allen School were rebuilt. The Beaver, West, and Elmwood schools were painted inside. The Pond School was painted under the C. W. A. The window frames of the High School and window frames and trim of the Allen School were painted. A much-needed clinic room was built in the basement of the Allen School. The buildings in general are now in a good physical condition. I wish to recommend once again that lights and modern toilet facilities be installed in the district schools.

The committee is urged to return the salary donations of the teachers, made voluntarily by them last year. The donation added to the loss of the yearly increment and the deduction for days of illness means in some cases a reduction of as high as 22%. The school department is functioning on a budget which means a bare existence, and the statement that frills and fads have crept into education has never been and is not now applicable to our school system. To show the reduction in our school costs as compared to other towns in our group, let me quote the following statistics:

COST PER PUPIL OF EDUCATION

Grade Schools

	1931	1933
Average cost per pupil in Group III	$71.76	$63.56
Average cost per pupil in East Bridgewater	63.74	51.18

High School

Average cost per pupil in Group III	$139.70	$120.96
Average cost per pupil in East Bridgewater	130.75	101.45

In closing, I wish to express my appreciation to you, the members of the School Committee, for assistance and advice given, for time willingly and freely devoted to educational matters, and for your helpful understanding of school problems. I also wish publicly to state my appreciation of the loyalty of all teachers and janitors to their work and to the town's school system.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES G. REARDAN,
Superintendent of Schools.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING

June 20th, 1934.

Pursuant to a Warrant signed June 11, 1934, duly posted and the Constable's return thereon, a special Town Meeting was held at the Town Hall on June 20th, 1934.

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 o'clock in the evening by Moderator Fred E. Fuller.

The following articles were in the warrant:

Article 1. To hear and act on the report of the Special Committee appointed at the Annual Town Meeting of March 5th, 1934, with instructions to report on the need for increased schoolhouse accommodations.

Article 2. To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate the sum of ninety thousand dollars of which the sum of two thousand dollars shall be raised and appropriated from the tax levy of the current year, and to authorize the Treasurer, with the approval of a majority of the Selectmen, to borrow on note or notes or bonds of the Town the balance, which is eighty-eight thousand dollars, in accordance with the general provisions of the law, for the purpose of erecting and equipping an addition to the present High School building, such notes or bonds to be in such amounts and payable at such times as the Treasurer with the approval of the Selectmen may determine, or take any action relative thereto.

Article 3. To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, of which the sum of two thousand dollars shall be raised and appropriated from the tax levy of the current year, and to authorize the Treasurer, with the approval of a majority of the Selectmen, to borrow on note or notes or bonds of the Town the balance, which is seventy-three thousand dollars, in accordance with the general provisions of the law, for the purpose of erecting and equipping an addition to the present High School building, such notes or bonds to be in such amounts and payable at such times as the Treasurer, with the approval of the Selectmen, may determine, or take any action relative thereto.

Article 4. To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate the sum of twenty thousand dollars, of which the sum of two thousand dollars shall be raised and appropriated from the tax levy of the current year, and to authorize the Treasurer, with the approval of a majority of the Selectmen, to borrow on note or notes or bonds of the Town the balance, which is eighteen thousand dollars, in accordance with the general provisions of the law, for the purpose of erecting and equipping an addition to the present Allen School building, such notes or bonds to be in such amounts and payable at such times as the Treasurer, with the approval of the Selectmen, may determine, or take any action relative thereto.

Article 5. To see if the Town will vote to raise and appropriate the sum of two thousand dollars for the purpose of making repairs at the West School, Beaver School and Elmwood School, as recommended in the report of the Special Committee on the need for increased schoolhouse accommodations.

Article 6. To see if the Town will vote to instruct the Moderator to appoint a Building Committee, and authorize said Committee to proceed with the supervision of the construction of the schoolhouse accommodations authorized under either article two or three and articles four and five.

Article 7. To see if the Town will choose a Building Committee, and authorize said Committee to act for the Town, to contract for and supervise the erection of any school building or buildings authorized at the Special Town Meeting held June 20, 1934, or any adjourned session thereof.

The following action was taken at the meeting.

A printed copy of the report of the committee of the special committee for increased schoolhouse accommodations was presented to the Town Clerk by Richard Bartlett, chairman of the special committee.

On motion of Robert E. McCarthy it was declared "that it be the sense of this meeting that the report of the special committee on schoolhouse accommodations is now properly before this meeting."

On motion of J. Frank Currie it was voted to accept the report of the committee and discharge the committee from further service.

On a point of order raised by J. Frank Currie, relative to the presence of a quorum, Moderator Fred E. Fuller appointed tellers to determine the number of voters at the meeting. The tellers reported seventy-one voters present in the hall and the Moderator declared that this did not constitute a quorum for the purpose of raising the amounts of money named in the articles of the Warrant.

It was voted to adjourn at 8:37 P. M.

MICHAEL J. MCCARTHY,
Town Clerk.

RECOUNT MEETING

November 17, 1934.

Pursuant to petitions asking for a recount of ballots cast at the State Election on November 6, 1934, for the offices of Congressman in the 15th Congressional District, Councillor in the 1st Councillor District and Representative in General Court for the 6th Plymouth Representative District, the Board of Registrars of Voters ordered that a recount should be held on November 17, 1934. Said action was taken by the registrars of voters on November 13, 1934, and notice of the recount mailed to each person who received votes for any of the above offices.

All ballots and records were transmitted to the said Board of Registrars by the Town Clerk. Following the examination of the ballots the registrars announced the following results and signed a certificate of the result.

Board of Registrars of Voters

RECOUNT MEETING

December 13th, 1934.

Pursuant to a communication received from Frederic W. Cook, Secretary of the Commonwealth, specifying that a petition had been filed asking for a recount of ballots cast at the election November 6th, 1934, and whereas the official tabulation of the Governor's Council has shown that the margin between the two leading candidates was less than one per cent of the total vote cast for the office of Secretary, the recount should be held immediately.

By vote of the Registrars of Voters the time for said recount was set for December 13, 1934, at 6:00 o'clock in the evening at the Town Office.

Records of the election of ballots were transmitted by the Town Clerk to the board of Registrars of Voters.

The board of registrars after examination of the ballots announced the result as follows:

FOR SECRETARY

Walter Burke (C)	9
Frederic W. Cook (R)	810
George L. McGlynn (S L)	10
Leslie A. Richards (S)	32
Joseph Santosuosso (D)	379
William B. Taylor (P)	20
Blanks	86
Total	1346

The ballots and records were resealed and returned to the custody of the Town Clerk.

MICHAEL J. McCARTHY, Clerk,
Registrar of Voters.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING

December 27, 1934.

Pursuant to a Warrant signed by the Board of Selectmen, dated December 17th, 1934, then duly posted and the Constable's return thereon, a special town meeting was held at the Town Hall on December 27th, 1934. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 o'clock in the evening by Moderator Fred E. Fuller.

John E. DeChambeau was appointed Assistant Town Clerk for this meeting by the Town Clerk Michael J. McCarthy and sworn to the faithful performance of his duties.

The following action was taken:

Article 1. To see if the Town will vote to authorize the transfer of the sum of three thousand and seven hundred dollars ($3,700.00) from the Interest on Temporary Loans Account, and the sum of six hundred dollars ($600.00) from the Old Age Assistance Account and the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) from the Water Extension Central Street Account and the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) from the Military Aid Account, to the Welfare Outside Aid Account.

ABSTRACT FROM CHAPTER 99 OF THE REVISED
LAWS OF MASSACHUSETTS

Sec. 3. Physicians and midwives shall, within forty-eight hours after the birth of every child in cases of which they were in charge, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a notice stating the date and place of the birth, giving the street number if any, color and the family name. They shall within fifteen days after the birth, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a report of the birth, stating the date and place, the name, if any, of the child, its sex and color, and the names, ages, places of birth, occupations and residences of the parents, giving the street number, if there be any, and the number of the ward in a city, the maiden name of the mother, if the full return is not made within the forty-eight hours.

The fee of the physician or midwife shall be twenty-five cents for each birth so reported. A physician or midwife who neglects to report each birth within forty-eight hours or fifteen days thereafter, shall for each offence forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 6. Parents, within forty days after the birth of a child, and every householder within forty days after a birth in his house, shall cause notice thereof to be given to the clerk of the city or town in which child is born.

The facts required for record, as stated in section 3, shall, so far as known or obtainable, be included in every notice given under the provision of this section.

Sec. 8. A parent, or other persons who, by Section 6, is required to give, or cause to be given, notice of a birth or death, who neglects to do so for ten days after the time limited therefor, shall forfeit not more than five dollars for each offence.

Sec. 24. The Town Clerk will furnish blanks for returns of births to parents, householders, physicians and midwives who apply therefor.

LESTER R. FISHER,
Auditor.

Report of State Auditor

To the Board of Selectmen

Mr. Michael J. McCarthy, Chairman
East Bridgewater, Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

I submit herewith my report of an audit of the accounts of the town of East Bridgewater for the period from December 5, 1931 to June 9, 1934, made in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 44 of the General Laws. This report is in the form of a report made to me by Mr. Herman B. Dine, Assistant Director of Accounts.

Very truly yours,

THEODORE N. WADDELL,

TNW-MEF

Director of Accounts.

Mr. Theodore N. Waddell
Director of Accounts

Department of Corporations and Taxation
State House, Boston

Sir:

As directed by you, I have made an audit of the books and accounts of the town of East Bridgewater for the period from December 5, 1931, the date of the previous audit, to June 9, 1934, and submit the following report thereon.

The financial transactions of the town, as recorded on the books of the several departments receiving or disbursing money for the town or committing bills for collection, were examined and compared with the records of the town treasurer and the accounting officer.

The books and accounts of the accounting officer were examined and checked in detail. The recorded receipts were compared with the treasurer's books and with the records of the several departments in which charges originated or money was collected. The records of disbursements were checked with the treasury warrants and with the treasurer's records of payments.

The appropriations and transfers as recorded on the accounting officer's ledger were checked with the town clerk's records of town meetings and with the records of the finance committee.

The ledger accounts were analyzed, the necessary correcting and adjusting entries were made, a trial balance was taken off, proving the accounts to be in balance, and a balance sheet, showing the financial condition of the town as of June 9, 1934, was prepared and is appended to this report.

The books and accounts of the town treasurer were examined and checked in detail. The recorded receipts were analyzed and compared with the collections as recorded in the several departments collecting money for the town and with other sources from which money was paid into the town treasury, while the payments were checked with the selectmen's warrants authorizing the treasurer to disburse town funds. The cash balance on June 9, 1934, was verified by a count of the cash in the office and a reconciliation of the bank accounts with statements furnished by the banks of deposit.

The payments on account of debt and interest were verified by a comparison with the amounts falling due and with the canceled securities and coupons on file. The coupon account was reconciled and the outstanding debt was listed and proved. Over-deposits of $286.88 in the coupon account for the period of the audit were called to the attention of the treasurer, and the amount was withdrawn from the bank during the progress of the audit.

The securities and savings bank books representing the investment of the various trust funds in the custody of the selectmen, town treasurer, and the East Bridgewater Savings Bank were examined and listed. The income was proved and the transfers and disbursements were verified.

Bequests received by the town should be reflected in the treasurer's cash transactions and invested only on authority of selectmen's warrants.

The tax title deeds in the custody of the town treasurer were examined and listed, and the necessary adjusting entries were made to bring the accounting officer's ledger into agreement with the tax title list.

The books and accounts of the tax collector were examined and checked. The tax accounts outstanding at the time of the previous examination were audited, and all subsequent commitments of taxes and moth assessments were analyzed, the abatements were checked, the payments to the treasurer were compared with the treasurer's cash book, and the outstanding accounts were listed and proved to the accounting officer's ledger.

The outstanding accounts were verified by mailing notices to a number of persons whose names appeared on the books as owing money to the town, the replies received thereto indicating that the accounts, as listed, are correct.

The collection of interest on overdue motor vehicle excise taxes should be enforced in accordance with the provisions of Section 2, Chapter 60A, General Laws.

It is recommended that the assessors keep a proper record of all abatements granted and that they promptly notify the tax collector of all such abatements, as required by Section 60, Chapter 59, General Laws.

The financial accounts of the town clerk were examined and checked. The receipts from dog licenses and for sporting and trapping licenses were checked with the records of licenses issued, the payments to the town and to the Division of Fisheries and Game being verified.

The commitments of public welfare accounts receivable were examined. The disallowances were verified, the payments to the treasurer were checked, and the outstanding accounts were listed and proved.

The records of the water department were examined. The commitments of water rates were analyzed, the recorded collections and the payments to the treasurer were verified, the abatements were checked, and the outstanding accounts were listed and proved.

A further verification of the outstanding accounts was made by mailing notices to many persons whose names appeared on the books as owing money to the town, the replies received thereto indicating that the accounts, as listed, are correct.

It is recommended that the selectmen keep a complete record of all licenses granted by their board in order that receipts from this source may be properly audited.

The accounts of the sealer of weights and measures were examined. The recorded receipts were checked with the records of weights and measures sealed and adjusted, and the payments to the treasurer were verified.

In addition to the departments mentioned, the available records of all other departments receiving money for the town were checked and the payments to the treasurer were verified.

The surety bonds filed by the several officials for the faithful performance of their duties were examined and found to be in proper form.

There are appended to this report, in addition to the balance sheet, tables showing a reconciliation of the treasurer's and the collector's cash, summaries of the tax, moth assessment, tax title, departmental, and water accounts, together with tables showing the condition of the various trust funds.

For the courtesies extended and the co-operation received from the several town officials during the progress of the audit, I wish, on behalf of my assistants and for myself, to express appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,

HERMAN B. DINE,

Assistant Director of Accounts.

The detail of receipts and expenditures is included in the Auditor's report.

The financial situation has been much easier during the past year than during the preceding two years. Loans having been secured easily and at a comparatively low rate of interest.

The work of the department has increased with a resultant increase in operating expense.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN L. KEITH,
Treasurer.

Report of the Fire Department

From May 1 to December 31, 1934

From May 1 through December 31st the Department responded to 20 alarms; 7 district and 13 still or telephone alarms.

We have issued thirteen garage permits, two permits to install gas tanks and store gasoline, twenty-four permits for the storage of fuel oil, six permits for the sale of fire works, and two permits for use of dynamite.

At the Central Station there is a Maxim triple combination truck of 750 gallon capacity.

At the Elmwood station there is one International chemical combination truck.

The Department has 3,300 feet of double jacket rubber lined cotton jacket hose 2½-inches in diameter and 250 feet of 1½-inch hose.

Respectfully submitted,

FRED F. SMITH,
C. ROBERT LINDQUIST,
EMERSON L. WOODWARD,

Report of the Tree Warden

To the Board of Selectmen and Citizens of East Bridge-water:

During the severe winter of 1933-34 approximately seventy-five trees were winter killed which must be removed.

I have transplanted sixteen new trees.

I want to, at this time, personally thank the Grange for the five beautiful maples which they had planted on the Playground.

I sincerely appreciate the co-operation of the Town Officials and the friendly spirit shown by the townspeople during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

CECIL W. HOYT,

Report of the Moth Superintendent

To the Board of Selectmen and the Citizens of East Bridgewater:

In the past year there has been the worst infestation of Gypsy Moth and Elm Leaf Beetle in this town since my years' of experience in this department.

I wish to inform the citizens that there is no Dutch Elm Beetle in this town. I have sent various samples to the Arlington Arboretum to be analyzed but they have proven false. The nearest this disease has been found is in Old Lyme, Connecticut, which is about fifty miles from the Massachusetts border.

I want to thank the Town Officials and Citizens of East Bridgewater for their cooperation.

Report of the Board of Selectmen

The spirit of cooperation manifested during the year by each department has been cordial and sincere. This has resulted in an efficient constructive administration of the government. The board of selectmen expresses its appreciation of the cooperative spirit shown by all town officers and boards.

Problems of several years standing, created by the unprecedented depression still confront us. Welfare and relief problems are still acute and require increased local appropriations in addition to the federal aid received.

The Federal Emergency Relief Administration has made a monthly allotment of funds which has been administered efficiently by Ezra S. Whitmarsh, chairman of the board of public welfare and work was given to as many as possible in accordance with the federal regulations. The first women's project was started this year, one at the public library in book binding and another in sewing. Both have proved highly successful.

Frequent conferences have been held during the year in addition to the regular meetings and these have tended to promote better administration. Recommendations of a lengthy nature for the year 1935 are not incorporated in this report, but rather will be presented by the board at the annual town meeting.

Report of the Park Commissioners

To the Citizens of East Bridgewater:

For the past three years the park commissioners have held their appropriation down to the absolute minimum needed for bare maintenance. Due to the ever increasing use of Strong Field, this cost has increased. In addition to this the need for painting and repairing flagpoles, bleachers and other equipment became so urgent that during the summer we asked for and received an additional amount of $335.00.

With this money we painted and repaired the flagpole, the bandstand and the bleachers at Strong Field; we reconditioned the tennis courts and purchased new tapes for them. At Memorial Park we painted and repaired the flagpole and purchased two cement urns to replace the painted tubs that stood at either end of the memorial tablet and also made some change in the Christmas illumination.

During the past year, football other than interscholastic was introduced at Strong Field under the leadership of "Jimmy" Fruzzetti and from the attendance at the games, and from the support that was given by the townspeople, there is no doubt but what it will continue. It is obvious however that another season the playing field must be roped off, both in the interest of the game and what is more important as a matter of public safety.

The tennis courts are always in great demand, and in order to keep them in first class condition, more care is necessary than we could afford last year. During the first part of the season the courts were reserved two afternoons for the use of the high school teams, and later when the Southeastern Tennis League was formed, one afternoon was reserved for the local entry in that organization. We believe that in the near future the building of one or two more courts should be given serious consideration.

The baseball diamond is in as good condition as can be expected with the small amount of money that is expended for maintenance. It needs fertilizer, grass seed for the bare spots and several yards of loam to smooth out the rough places in the infield.

There is a constant need by the athletic teams, both school and adult, that use Strong Field, for some place to use as a dressing room. The tool house under the grandstand has been used in the past with very undesirable results, and we would like very much to erect a similiar building under the other end of the bleachers for use as a dressing room.

At the Memorial Park a new fence should be erected along the back line. The old posts have been braced and patched until there is not much left of them. The wiring for the Christmas illumination has been in use for about ten years and will have to be practically all replaced next year in order to conform with present regulations for outdoor wiring.

Several pieces of equipment are needed including a new lawnmower for use at the park and a hand roller for the tennis courts.

The desire has been expressed in some quarters that we take over the care of the various safety triangles, such as those located at the Common, and at the corner of Central and Pleasant Sts. This would of course mean an added expense.

Bearing these facts in mind we are asking for a larger appropriation for 1935.

We take this opportunity to thank the Grange for setting out the trees along the Spear Avenue side of Strong Field. We also wish to express our appreciation to the other departments for their cooperation during the past year.

Report of the Board of Public Welfare

The Department organized with Ezra S. Whitmarsh as Chairman and Ellen N. E. Moorhouse as Clerk.

We have aided during the year 548 persons; of these 294 had a settlement in this Town, 142 in other Cities and Towns, 89 were State, 23 Mothers' Aid.

REPORT OF OLD AGE ASSISTANCE

We have aided during the present year 38 persons. At the present time we are aiding 31 and have 3 cases pending. This law of Old Age Assistance has been called Old Age Pension. While a pension is based on an individual's legal right, this law is based on a person's need. Therefore every case is budgeted. There are three fundamentals which must be actually proven before an applicant is eligible; age, citizenship and 20 year residence. Other requirements are need of support and the consideration given to the means of the aged persons and the ability of children or others to support such persons.

During the year we have received and distributed to the poor and needy a large amount of food supplies and clothing from the Government.

Librarian's Report

To the Board of Trustees of the East Bridgewater Public Library:

I submit herewith the annual report of the year ending December 31, 1934.

HISTORY

The past year marked the completion of 50 years of service by the East Bridgewater Public Library, and I believe it will be of interest to present a brief review of the history of libraries in the town of East Bridgewater.

As early as 1770 a library existed in the East Parish of Bridgewater. Another, which was formed as "The Proprietors of a Library" in the East Precinct of Bridgewater in 1773, owned at one time a collection of well selected books. In 1836 a Social Library was formed in that part of the town known as Joppa Village, now Elmwood; a Village Library was formed in the centre of the town in 1838; and, largely through the efforts of John Adams Conant Jr., a library was formed in Eastville in 1840. An agricultural library was formed in 1860, and on Sept. 23, 1870 the East Bridgewater Library Association was formed.

In January 1884 the East Bridgewater Library Association voted that, if the town would annually appropriate a sum of not less than $100 to be expended for books under the direction of the library committee, the public might have the free use of the books owned by the association. On March 10, 1884 the town voted to establish the East Bridgewater Public Library, appropriated $500 for the purpose, and chose a committee consisting of Ezra Kingman, George W. Allen, and Isaac N. Nutter to supervise the formation of a library which should be open to the public.

On June 25, 1884 the library was opened in a room over the store now occupied by Fred E. Fuller, but then by Isaac N. Nutter. 468 volumes were received from the Library Association, as well as most of the books from the agricultural library. Miss Mary T. Rogers, now Mrs. W. O. Sheldon of Lakeville, Ohio, served as the first librarian. In April 1885 the library, with the town offices, was moved into the Savings Bank building; and on June 25, 1887 Miss Lucy L. Siddall became the librarian, which position she held for 42 years. In 1892 the library was again moved, this time to Masonic block, which it occupied until its permanent home was ready for occupancy. During the first year here the circulation increased to nearly 3,000, and the first attempt at a reading room was made.

On July 18, 1894, Mr. Cyrus Washburn of Wellesley Hills, who was a native of East Bridgewater, transferred by a deed of trust certain stocks of the par value of $10,000 to Benjamin W. Harris, Isaac N. Nutter, Benjamin W. Keith, George M. Keith, and Robert O. Harris, trustees, stipulating that they should purchase the lot formerly occupied by the Catholic Church, holding the balance of the stock and paying the income to him during his life. Upon his death a building should be erected for the use of the town as a library. Later, Mr. Washburn decided to have the building erected during his life, and plans drawn by W. V. Howard, an architect of Brockton, were selected.

The present building was erected in 1896 and dedicated Sept. 22, 1897. The building was without furnishings or equipment. A fair was held, netting over $300. From this sum curtains were bought and 170 books added. Many books given at the dedication have special souvenir book-plates inserted.

During the years that followed, Miss Siddall devoted herself to impressing upon the citizens the necessity for a well-supported library. Rummage sales and fairs were held, many public spirited townspeople gave generously, and several permanent trust funds were established. In 1909, the 25th anniversary of the library, 5,965 books had been accessioned and a card catalog had been made. The circulation was 14,218. When Miss Siddall resigned in 1929, the circulation was 23,845, which was 35% above the average for towns of approximately the same population.

REPORT FOR 1934

Statistics at the close of 1934 show a circulation of 57,400 books and magazines or 16 books per capita, and that 15,750 books have been accessioned. The library was open 5 days a week with an average daily circulation of 228 books.

The children's department also showed an increase in circulation. 11,933 books were circulated to children under High School age, and 109 reading certificates were awarded.

While the increased circulation is gratifying, we feel that the gain would have been greater had we been able to supply our readers with more books.

ACTIVITIES

38 school deposits were made during the year, and 16 sets of pictures were lent to the schools.

4 Italian and 4 Portuguese libraries were used during the year.

181 books were borrowed through Inter-Library loan.

A shelf-catalog check begun in February 1933 is nearing completion.

A book mending project under the F. E. R. A. was begun in November. 266 books and 32 magazines were cleaned and mended by December 31.

The librarian attended meetings of the Massachusetts Library Club, the Old Colony Library Club, and served on various library committees. The assistants attended the Old Colony Library Club meetings.

GIFTS

Mrs. Daniel French, a former resident, presented a book and an autographed portrait of Frank D. Millet to the library.

Mr. Alfred Parker presented several books to the library and a picture of the Satucket River fish weir.

The library has been the recipient of many books and magazines. One loyal patron donated 21 books of current fiction, which made a welcome addition to our shelves.

We acknowledge these gifts with deep gratitude.

In conclusion I would express appreciation for the friendly and efficient work of the assistants and to the Board of Trustees for their interest and support.

RADIO

In January, 1934, the police car was equipped with a six tube Atwater Kent police radio. This radio has proved its value many times during the past year, 467 calls having been received during that time.

Where there is but one regular police officer on duty twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week, it is impossible for him to be in more than one place at a time. In order to simplify matters the following system, which took several years to build up, has been evolved.

A new telephone number, which is very easy to remember, has been given the department. It is No. 1, and may be called day or night. After the operator receives No. 1, she turns on a light in Fred Bates Morse Square, which burns until the call is answered. If the operator gets no response she immediately calls the State Police Barracks at West Bridgewater, which in turn sends the message to the cruiser car by radio. Several tests have been made to find out how long it would take to complete a call and the best test was made in one minute and forty-five seconds.

The Department of Public Safety has given this department three numbers that can be used for calling its cruiser cars. Any time a cruiser car is seen in your vicinity it can be contacted by going to a telephone and calling No. 1 stating your need.

WARNINGS TO OPERATORS

During the year, 1,184 operators have been warned because of some slight infraction of parking or operating regulations. In each case an arrest might have been made but it is the belief of this department that the education of the individual is better than arrests. In practically every instance the operator has been appreciative of the courtesy shown, the warning has proved sufficient, and the offence has not been repeated. This type of work is done every day, with the cruiser car patrolling the highways, and a drive is made at no time for the purpose of making a big showing in the number of arrests made of operators violating traffic laws.

We believe that the business of the town has been directly benefited by the facts that there have been no cars stolen in this town; that fatal accidents have been reduced to a minimum; and that the police department of East Bridgewater has acquired a reputation for courtesy and restraint in the matter of arrests.

NATURALIZATION

An increased interest in the subject of naturalization on the part of many of our foreign-born citizens has enabled this department to add materially to the service rendered the town this year. Considerable time and effort have been expended in looking up records, in attending sessions of the court for naturalization, and in personal conference with applicants for citizenship and with Mr. George C. P. Olsson, Clerk of Superior Court, and his clerk Miss Margaret Alexander, to both of whom we are greatly indebted for tactful coöperation and assistance. It is our desire to render every aid to any person desiring to become a citizen of our country and we earnestly hope that we may help many more to receive the great benefit of citizenship during the coming year.

REVOLVER RANGES

There are two revolver ranges for the use of the police department in the town. The indoor range is in the basement of the fire station and the outdoor range is on South Street. The police allows the Satucket Rifle and Revolver Club to use both of these. Any citizen who is interested in revolver shooting can go to either range at any time he or she sees fit. There are available for the purposes of instruction, four members of the New England Police and Revolver League.

IMPORTANCE OF REVOLVER INSTRUCTION FOR POLICE OFFICERS

The reports of the shooting of police officers have led to the conviction that no police officer should be allowed on duty who is not thoroughly versed in the handling and use of his gun. In days past, guns were not largely used by either police or criminals, but today the executive in charge of a police department is criminally negligent if he allows an officer to go on the street, unless he is sure that that man can defend himself instantly and effectively against the attack of the accurate shooting of the crooked today.

The East Bridgewater Police Department belongs to the New England Police and Revolver League. One member has received a gold bar, engraved with the words "Revolver Expert", which he is entitled to wear above his police badge. It should be the ambition of each member of the force to have the distinction of wearing one of these bars.

SAVE A LIFE CAMPAIGN—DRIVERS' SAFETY LEAGUE

The "Drivers' Safety League" organized during the summer, while not spectacular in its work or growth, has shown a steady increase in membership. Many of the new drivers on receiving their licenses have made unsolicited application to the Executive Committee for membership cards. It is generally conceded that the existence of such a league in a town makes for the increased safety of drivers and pedestrians, a greater coöperation with those responsible for public safety, and a better understanding of the safety laws. Every licensed driver of a motor vehicle may become a member by signing a membership card, which may be secured from any member of the Safety League Committee.

LIFE SAVING DEVICES

A public demonstration of life saving devices was held as a feature of "Save a Life Campaign". A large group of interested citizens, both ladies and gentlemen, saw Messrs. Brown and Wise of the Gas Co. use life saving devices in conjunction with the prone method of artificial respiration. Lieut. Kingman of the Whitman Fire Department demonstrated the use of the inhalator. The use of the lung motor owned by the town was also demonstrated.

The present Board of Selectmen have purchased for the town, a Clark Duplex Inhalator, which is considered the best of this type of inhalator. It is for use in the resuscitation of victims of gas-poisoning, smoke-poisoning, and submersion. This apparatus, which can serve two victims at once, is especially recommended by its simplicity of operation and its respiration indicators which tell instantly and continuously what is being accomplished. The inhalator is kept at the Town Offices and an emergency call made to telephone No. 1 will receive the immediate attention which it demands.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I would recommend that $4,000 be appropriated for the Police Department for the year 1935.

I would recommend that the present plan drawn up by the Department of Public Works, providing rotary traffic in Fred Bates Morse Square, be accepted.

I would recommend that the police auto be turned in each year for a new car, as the expense for repairs on any emergency car amounts to as much as the trading in price, if not more.

I would recommend that no police officer be appointed until the Chief of Police is satisfied that he is qualified to handle his revolver with a degree of proficiency to insure his own safety.

Respectfully submitted,

EVERETT F. RUSSELL,
Chief of Police.

Report of the School Committee

To the Citizens of East Bridgewater:

The School Committee submits its annual report of the condition of your schools for the year ending December 31, 1934.

The Committee organized for the year with Mr. Samuel K. Nutter as chairman, Mrs. Anna M. Bannerman as treasurer, and Superintendent James G. Rear-dan as secretary. We feel that the schools are very well organized, that the courses of study are complete and adequate and that the teachers are well prepared for their several tasks and are doing a very efficient piece of work.

The Committee has felt that it is more essential for every pupil to have a usable book than it was for the Committee to make adoptions of new textbooks. This year we have made an effort to purchase enough books to complete all sets which are now in use, so that every pupil in the first six grades will have a textbook. The Committee realizes that some of the books should be replaced with more recent editions, but they feel that this is not the time to spend any great sum of money on replacement of books.

The Allen School, which has always been a source of worry because of the inadequate means of egress in case of fire, has been remodelled under the direction of the State Department of Public Safety. A new fire escape has been constructed on the east side of the building and fire doors have been built in both the upper and lower halls. In the basement of the building a clinic room and office for the school nurse has been built.

The Committee has had installed proper lighting fixtures throughout the High School class rooms, and we feel that we now have adequate lighting.

There is at the present time, as there has been for the past ten years, a pressing need for more adequate housing for our pupils. We have at the present time in the high school building, in the morning session, 150 pupils attending school. At the high school building in the afternoon, we have 241 pupils attending school. This building was built to accomodate only 142 pupils. The townspeople should do something very definite to relieve these conditions.

The sanitary conditions at the Allen School are inadequate, antiquated, and not conducive to good health. We plan to replace these toilet facilities with modern sanitary equipment and have asked for a sum of money to cover this replacement.

The State Department of Vocational Education has been very cooperative in granting us a teacher to carry on our Home Economics Department. The position has been filled by Miss Jeanette Lakin, who came to us well-trained to carry on the work of this department.

The Committee is very much pleased to note and has followed with interest the formation of a Community Club in the Beaver District. This club has surely shown an active interest in the affairs of the Beaver School and is to be complimented upon the many fine things which it has done, among which are the installation of electric lights and the purchase of a new piano. Much good is bound to come from an organization such as this in which parent and teacher meet on the common ground and can discuss school problems in a very intimate manner.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES G. REARDAN,

Secretary of the School Committee.

KNIGHTS OF VALOUR

In our gleaming armour of honour and truth,
Our triumphant banners unfurled,
With invincible weapons of courage and youth,
We stand girded to challenge the world.
 With shoulders straight,
 With heads held high,
We eagerly await the trumpet cry:

With our spirits dauntless in Chivalrous quest;
In desire for adventure and strife
We go bravely onward to meet the test
On the glorious crusade of our life.
 With joyful hearts,
 With spirits high,
We eagerly await the trumpet cry

Chorus

March on! March on!
With eyes clear-visioned, our Grail in sight.
March on! March on!

ABSTRACT FROM CHAPTER 99 OF THE REVISED LAWS OF MASSACHUSETTS

Sec. 3. Physicians and midwives shall, within forty-eight hours after the birth of every child in cases of which they were in charge, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a notice stating the date and place of the birth, giving the street number if any, color and the family name. They shall within fifteen days after the birth, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the city or town in which the birth occurred, a report of the birth, stating the date and place, the name, if any, of the child, its sex and color, and the names, ages, places of birth, occupations and residences of the parents, giving the street number, if there be any, and the number of the ward in a city, the maiden name of the mother, if the full return is not made within the forty-eight hours.

The fee of the physician or midwife shall be twenty-five cents for each birth so reported. A physician or midwife who neglects to report each birth within forty-eight hours or fifteen days thereafter, shall for each offence forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Sec. 6. Parents, within forty days after the birth of a child, and every householder within forty days after a birth in his house, shall cause notice thereof to be given to the clerk of the city or town in which child is born.

The facts required for record, as stated in section 3, shall, so far as known or obtainable, be included in every notice given under the provision of this section.

Sec. 8. A parent, or other persons who, by Section 6, is required to give, or cause to be given, notice of a birth or death, who neglects to do so for ten days after the time limited therefor, shall forfeit not more than five dollars for each offence.

Sec. 24. The Town Clerk will furnish blanks for returns of births to parents, householders, physicians and midwives who apply therefor.

Librarian's Report

To the Trustees of the East Bridgewater Public Library:

I submit a report of the work of the Library for the year ending December 31, 1935.

The year 1935 was a most satisfactory year in the annals of the Library. A shelf-catalog check which was begun in 1933 was completed, and the card catalogs were completely revised to bring them into conformity with the actual book collection. Over 200 old books were re-cataloged, and a five year magazine file was completed.

While the care of the book collection provides work that is never done, this year a very ambitious program was completed. In 1931 all unsightly paper labels were removed from the books, the designations were printed in ink, and the backs given a coat of shellac. In 1932 the repair of the books was undertaken. The Toronto system of book mending was introduced, and all books that had been impaired by awl and stitch mending were carefully taken apart and correctly mended or bound. The progress was slow for two major reasons: first, there was a constantly fresh supply of books and magazines brought in from the daily circulation to be mended; second, the girls who did the mending had to be trained and supervised by the librarian in addition to her other duties. In November, 1934, the librarian trained two F. E. R. A. workers and supervised them in a book mending project which ended in January 1935. By this method the bulk of the repair work was finished.

CIRCULATION

The circulation of books and periodicals for the year was 59,623. The adult book circulation was 42,876, a decrease of approximately 2,500; the juvenile circulation was 16,747, an increase of approximately 5,000. There was an increase of nearly 1,200 in adult non-fiction with a decrease of approximately 3,500 in adult fiction. The explanation of this decrease is that we are unable to supply enough current and popular fiction to meet the demand of our adult readers.

The number of borrowers increased in both adult and juvenile departments. The Library has 2,086 registered borrowers from a population of 3,670. The per capita circulation for the year was 16.25, a slight gain over last year in spite of an increase in the population statistics of the town.

THE CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

During the past year, 65 State Reading Certificates were issued to grade pupils, and many books, not read for credit, were enjoyed by the children. The Vacation Reading Club had a busy summer, and Book Week in November attracted much favorable attention. We circulated more than one-third of our total circulation to children under high school age. This included the books circulated through deposits sent to the grade schools. This work is of utmost importance for if children discover the joy of reading the foundation of their future education is laid.

The children's department, begun as an experiment five years ago, has grown like Jack's beanstalk. The children have flocked to the Library more than ever before, not only for books to take home, but also to have comfortable quarters in which to read or study. The adult readers have often been crowded out of their reading room by these eager youngsters, and have accepted the situation graciously. Yet it is undoubtedly true that they, like the Library staff, look forward to the time when the Library can have a separate juvenile department.

BOOK PURCHASES

The book purchases for the year were 516 books, and in addition, 74 books were received as gifts. We now have 12,433 bound volumes in the Library. Our reference library has been greatly improved. The Standard Catalog of Books and the Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature give our readers information about books, magazine articles, authors, publishers, price. The new edition of the Britannica Encyclopedia and the Dictionary of American Biography were purchased and added to the reference room.

The Library borrowed books through the Inter-Library Loan arrangements from Bridgewater, Brockton and Boston. The State Division of Public Libraries lent us many books including four collections of Portuguese and Italian books.

PERSONNEL

The Library staff remained unchanged during the year. At present, the staff consists of the librarian, Ethel B. Chandler; two regular assistants, Esther Moorhouse and Leah Canelli; and two part-time assistants, Grace Eastman and Julia Clogston. The librarian selects, classifies and catalogs the books; Mrs. Moorhouse is in charge of the children's desk, and Miss Canelli charges books at the adult desk. Mrs. Eastman assists the librarian with the reference work and at the charging desk during rush hours; Miss Clogston does the mending and substitutes in the absence of other members of the staff.

The librarian and assistants attended meetings of the Old Colony Library Club during the year, and the librarian attended meetings of the Massachusetts Library Club.

USE OF LIBRARY ROOMS

The Library was used for meetings by the Taxpayer's League, the Mother's Club, the Girl Scout Council and the Woman's Club. Art exhibits from the Beaver School were held. During Book Week the Junior High School pupils visited the Library in groups; this was done outside of Library hours so that the pupils could be told the history of the Library, and have the opportunity to examine the historical documents.

The librarian wishes to express her appreciation of the friendly co-operation which she has received. The Library Trustees have been friendly and helpful, the Library staff loyal, and the townspeople we serve have shown a friendly appreciation of our service.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHEL B. CHANDLER,

Librarian.

Report of the Board of Public Welfare

The Board of Public Welfare organized with Mr. Ezra S. Whitmarsh, chairman and Mrs. Ellen N. E. Moorhouse, clerk. Regular meetings have been held on Monday of each week and several special meetings have been necessary to take care of work due to Federal and State requirements, increased Old Age Assistance applications and the necessity of having to give aid on account of delayed payments of W. P. A. labor.

We have aided during the year 483 persons, of these 240 had settlement in this Town, 137 in other Cities and Towns, 79 State and 27 mothers' aid. One case of mothers' aid moved from Town the past year.

Old Age Assistance report: Persons aided during the year 41, lost by death two cases, cases rejected six. We are aiding 38 on Old Age Assistance at the present time. The law on eligibility has been amended as follows: A citizen of 70 years of age or over who shall have resided in the commonwealth not less than five years during the nine years immediately preceding the date of application for such assistance and who shall have resided in the commonwealth continuously for one year immediately preceding said date of application is eligible, providing all other requirements are met.

Report of the Board of Selectmen

The past year has been marked by the continued co-operation and loyalty of all town officers and committees. The result has been productive of an administrative year of satisfactory results.

Referred to in the report of the previous year, the national condition of retarded business, with the attendant problems of unemployment and welfare costs, has continued to be a major problem throughout 1935. This condition has added materially to the yearly budgets. However, in granting these increases the citizens have recognized the need for the town to contribute in part toward relief from distress.

Federal aid has been continued through the Federal Emergency Relief Administration and its successor, the Works Progress Administration. The federal government has provided funds for the payment of wages and the town's contribution has been for the cost of material. Projects meeting with federal approval which have been completed or are continuing to include flood control, re-graveling highways, stone fence and drain reconstruction, clearing of town forest, tree spraying, tree trimming, pest survey and sewing.

Through a local office, federal allotments of food and clothing are distributed, and this has been a substantial aid to help relieve welfare costs for those items.

During the past year a federal grant to aid in the construction of an addition to the high school has been accepted by the town. Construction under this project is now under way. Completion is scheduled for the early fall and the new building should be ready for occupancy before the opening of schools after the summer vacation. We believe that the addition will provide relief from congestion and overcrowding which has prevailed for several years. One of the major problems of several years standing seems to be solved and the federal funds appear definitely to have provided a source of substantial financial gain for the town in the construction. A definite financial policy of borrowing in anticipation of revenue adopted two years ago has worked out as planned and this item of debt has been reduced. Interest rates have been the most favorable ever secured and resulted in gratifying savings. The present financial condition of the town is good and can be maintained under proper supervision and direction.

Borrowings to finance the High School addition under P. W. A. and a loan to finance W. P. A. work projects, both of which were negotiated this year, were issued at interest rates very favorable to the town.

In the preparation of the 1936 budget in cooperation with department heads, the need for governmental economy has been foremost in the minds of all. A satisfactory budget is that which provides the necessary funds to operate a given department efficiently and effectively during the fiscal year on the planned budget. To this end the 1936 budget is considered the minimum total to cover necessary expenditures.

Many articles calling for special appropriations which were contemplated have been omitted from the warrant for the annual town meeting this year in the interest of a fair tax rate, and all articles calling for special appropriations should receive careful consideration.

County Aid to Agriculture, 1935

Town of East Bridgewater

In presenting the report of Extension Service activities for the town of East Bridgewater, I would like to first call your attention to the fact that the Plymouth County Extension Service has been functioning for the betterment of Agriculture, Home Life, and the boys and girls of the County for twenty-one years. It is your organization and serves you only insofar as you ask for service.

Report of Agriculture

The County Extension Service endeavors to present useful and practical information to farmers of the County and encourage the application of the same. We aid in securing and presenting information on production, marketing, and assist in cooperative enterprises. During 1935, farmers of the County have been kept informed of their position under the various Agricultural Control Program. The poultry and egg market program set-up in 1934 gave poultrymen an opportunity to sell $430,000 worth of produce during 1935. Farm credit programs were especially important during the past year. 3,187 farmers in the County were supplied with timely information regarding agricultural problems, while 559 farm visits were made .

Home Demonstration Work

In Home Demonstration Work, the Extension Service assists home-makers with problems relating to the practical management of the home, bringing up of children, and providing a good home environment.

In home-making, the Extension Service brought help to women during 1935 in food buying and preservation, clothing construction and renovation, child training, improvement of home grounds, planning recreational programs, and the keeping of home accounts. Well over 3,000 women participated in this program.

Club Work

In 4-H Club work, the Extension Service provides for the boys and girls of the County an opportunity for educational development through study and practice in home economics and agriculture, as well as an opportunity for self-improvement. It emphasizes the home, and brings club members and parents together in a common interest. It develops cooperation, leadership, self-confidence, ambition, sportsmanship, ability to think, responsibility, and community spirit.

There were 100 4-H Clubs organized in 1935, with an enrollment of 1,600 boys and girls. These clubs were under the supervision of 100 volunteer local leaders. Twenty-six of the twenty-seven towns and cities had club work this year.

Home Demonstration Work

Nearly fifty home makers enrolled in the Extension groups for the study of food buying. There was also a good enrollment in clothing and child development groups, and participation in home accounts and garden maintenance programs.

Agriculture

The Agent attended seven dairy meetings during the year. Thirteen men enrolled to take farm inventories in the Farm Inventory Campaign. The County Agent made calls relative to agricultural problems upon request of farmers themselves.

East Bridgewater men attended many meetings of County-wide nature. On the mailing list to receive timely information on various agricultural projects are: 47 poultrymen, 27 dairymen, 14 fruit growers and market gardeners.

4-H Club Work

There were 250 boys and girls enrolled as 4-H Club members during the past year.

As in the past, East Bridgewater has kept up its enviable record of excellent 4-H Club work. The leaders have worked diligently and faithfully throughout the year with the boys and girls. Too much cannot be said for the fine work of these local leaders.

The East Bridgewater Grange appointed a committee that visited and scored the gardens of the Garden Club members.

Allan Fuller, Arax Adabashian, Evelyn Smith, and Ruth Johnson attended the State 4-H Club Camp held at the Massachusetts State College.

Arax Adabashian and Allan Fuller were also Junior Counsellors at Camp Farley, which is the Camp for 4-H Club members in Southeastern Massachusetts.

Many honors were won by East Bridgewater club members. Arax Adabashian won her trip to State camp by winning first place in a State-wide play writing contest. Evelyn Smith won her trip by winning first in a Station-wide quick bread contest. Evelyn also won an electric sewing machine by placing 1st in the Singer Sewing Machine contest at Brockton Fair. Ruth Johnson won 1st prize in the 1934 room improvement contest and received as an award her trip to State Camp in 1935.

Smaller awards, such as prizes at the final exhibit and in the dress contest, were won by many of the girls.

Many of the club members attended Camp Farley.

Report of the Moth Superintendent

To the Board of Selectmen and Citizens of East Bridge-water:

In the past year the Federal Government granted $3,767.25 to the Town, combined with the money appropriated by the Town, it enabled me to keep the Gypsy Moths well under control.

The Federal Government also granted the Town $432.00 for spraying the trees on the highways.

Two local men were employed for three months by the Federal Government to scout the Dutch Elm Beetle. Thirty-seven samples were sent to be analyzed. A report was sent back that there are not any Dutch Elm Beetles in Town. Three of the samples showed European Beetle which carry the Dutch Elm Disease so these trees must be watched carefully.

ANNA M. BANNERMAN,

Treasurer of School Committee.

Voted, that the report of the Superintendent be accepted as the report of the School Committee for the year 1935.

East Bridgewater, Mass.

January 31, 1936.

Report of the Superintendent of Schools

To the School Committee,
East Bridgewater, Mass.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I herewith present my first annual report of the schools for the fiscal year of 1935.

On July 31, 1935, Mr. James G. Reardan resigned his position as Superintendent of Schools. Your present Superintendent began service on August 1, 1935. The School Committee organized in March with Mr. Samuel K. Nutter as Chairman and Mrs. Anna M. Bannerman as Treasurer. Mr. Bradford Alexander was elected Secretary in July. The following teachers resigned their positions during the past year: Miss Anna Nielson, Miss Alice Roach and Miss Gertrude H. McNamara. The following teachers have been elected to positions during the past year: Miss Eleanor M. Holmes, Miss Dorothy E. Vaughn, Mr. George P. Carleton and Miss Ellen M. Shea.

The Health Program in the schools is being carried on with excellent results under the efficient direction of the School Physician, the School Dentist and the School Nurse. A complete program of examinations and inspections has been instituted. The work is aiding materially in improving the physical welfare of the school children, and valuable educational work is being done by the School Nurse, the results of which, will be best appreciated by the young people later in their lives.

I wish to call particular attention to the fine work which is being done by the Supervisor of Music. The School Band has been and continues to be an institution of outstanding excellence. With the reorganization of the Senior and Junior High Schools in September, 1936, better facilities and more adequate time will be provided for choral and band work.

The installation of new toilets for the boys at the Allen School, during the Summer of 1935, provided modern sanitary facilities. It is hoped that a similar installation for the girls will be completed in 1936. This work would complete the program of modernizing the Allen School.

It is the intention of the School Committee to install electric lights in the Elmwood, West and Pond Schools. These lights are greatly needed and will help tremendously in the efficiency of the buildings.

There is a need of gradual replacement of obsolete and worn out textbooks. The School Committee has adopted and installed (January, 1936) a new basic reading system for grades 1-6. This provides a modern reading system which is uniform in all grades and buildings. The next installation should be in the field of elementary language. At present there is no uniform method for the teaching of writing. The Superintendent recommends the adoption of a modern system for teaching writing. Such an adoption would cost a comparatively small amount of money and the results should greatly improve the writing technique. Courses of study should be gradually revised in order to keep pace with modern method and technique. When the financial condition of the Town warrants the expenditure the School Committee should employ a Supervisor of Drawing.

The opening of the addition to the High School in September, 1936, will provide adequate facilities for a Senior-Junior High School. The unsatisfactory conditions arising from the two schools functioning on a two platoon system will be eliminated. The Senior High School has been handicapped by short hours and no opportunity for afternoon activities. The Junior High School has been handicapped by short hours and the difficulties arising out of a late afternoon session. The establishment of the six upper grades in one building, on a uniform program, with modern facilities, with adequate hours and revised curricula should provide the right kind of education for the children at the secondary level.

Respectfully submitted,

H. PAUL LARRABEE,
Superintendent of Schools.

CLASS ODE

Achievement

A growing tree reached up toward God's blue sky
To thrust its eager arms to heaven on high;
With strength and hope its vivid life was filled,
As sunshine and the rain its spirit thrilled.

Though lashed and bent, it strives to greater height
Until, through fading mist, the goal in sight,
It reaches, proud, above the wind and storm
To lift its stately head to meet the dawn.

So youth strives on and up, undaunted yet
By life's despair and trouble it has met,
Until at last it finds the lofty height,
And bravely stands, still strong, from life's great fight.
